

Rhoads' resignation rejected

By HENRY CANTIN

The resignation of missing Huron Township Supervisor Douglas C. Rhoads, 29, has been received and rejected by Huron Township officials, it was disclosed Monday.

The letter of resignation was submitted last Friday by Ecorse Municipal Judge Carl L. Rhoads, father of the missing official.

Township Clerk George W. Moore, who was appointed acting supervisor by the township board at its Feb. 24 meeting, announced that the township board did not accept the resignation.

He reported that Judge Rhoads had failed to indicate he had the power of attorney from his son and indicated further that the resignation should have been submitted and signed by Douglas C. Rhoads.

The letter stated that Rhoads was resigning for reason of personal health and was to become effective March 1.

Meanwhile a several-state involving Mich. State Police, search for the missing supervisor is continuing. The Huron Township Police Department and police agencies at Miami and Fort Lauderdale, where the missing executive is believed to have gone.

The father has filed missing reports with police agencies in Ecorse, Huron Township, the Wayne County Sheriff's office, Mich. State police, and police agencies in Miami and Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Rhoads' wife, Susan, had not filed a missing report as of Monday.

Rhoads, father of two children, was last seen in his office on Monday, Feb. 9. He failed to show up at the township meeting the following Wednesday and subsequent meetings since.

On Monday, Moore reported that papers seeking the removal of Rhoads from the post of township supervisor have been drafted and signed by members of the township board.

The papers were to be sent Tuesday to Gov. William Milliken's office.

In requesting the governor to remove Rhoads, the board members charged Rhoads with "wilful neglect of duties as an elective official since Feb. 8."

They charged that Rhoads "has not in any manner performed the duty of supervisor to which he was duly elected."

The removal request also stated that Rhoads has missed three township board meetings and was not in attendance at other scheduled meetings. Mail and business of the supervisor's office has gone unattended.

It stated that direct and indirect endeavors have been made to locate Rhoads without success.

If the governor declares the post vacant, the board will have 45 days to appoint a successor. If no agreement is reached on the appointment, the township clerk must notify the governor and then schedule an election.

Rhoads was elected in last November's general election. He defeated Democrat James L. Krause of New Boston after an aggressive campaign.

Krause has since been indicted by a Wayne County Citizens Grand Jury for an alleged shortage in the sewer department fund of the township. Krause is former township treasurer.

Judge Rhoads reported that his son was undergoing severe mental anxiety, due mainly to the stress of his job, and had been taking tranquilizers prescribed by his doctor about two weeks prior to his disappearance.

The father also disclosed that his son recently drove to nearby Metro Airport and boarded a plane for Miami, Fla. He returned the next day.

On Feb. 9, Rhoads kissed his wife good-bye, ostensibly to attend a township meeting, and has not been heard of since.

What is Lent?

(Editor's Note: The following is the second of a series of Lenten Sermons by area pastors and leading churchmen. This week's article was submitted by Rev. J. Charles Dibley, pastor of the Belleville First United Methodist Church.)

By REV. J. CHARLES DIBLEY

Lent is subject to varied interpretations and observations. But, basically, what should Lent mean to the believer? What, if any, special opportunity does it provide for individual Christians and the pastors of our various congregations?

Is Lent merely a negation? Is Lent simply a forty day period in which self-denial is supposed to harp on various traditions, or merit divine blessing extra ordinary?

Is Lent a time merely to cut down on candy, social parties, etc.? Is Lent a season of black, immediately preceded and followed by seasons of scarlet indulgence?

Is it forty days of modified worldliness, followed by unrestricted worldliness?

Is Lent something to "cramp our style", to "turn us off", to keep us from "Doing our Thing"?

Dr. Macartney epitomized the very soul of Lent and its deeper meaning when he said: "The death of Christ is the one grand truth around which gather all the truths of Christianity."

If this be Lent and the climax of the Lenten Season, it calls for honesty of contemplation in the heart of the believer. It is not a far better that you are it completely than with the same deft hand which defiled our Christmas we make of it a hollow mockery, or gamble for His garments.

The navigator of the seas who throws his sextant overboard and reckons his longitude and latitude on a trial and error basis, has long since been ruled from the seas as a menace, not only to himself, but more especially to others who have to pass that way.

The minister needs often, and his people too, to take new bearings, to know exactly where they are and whither they are bound. Knowing definitely, neither one's position or direction is the most certain way on to the rocks.

While constant soundings of depth and constant readings for position should be made, the season of Lent invites emphatically to such reckoning. How exceedingly much of our inexpressible woes stem from our neglect of concern as to our present location and the road we are traveling.

Is our Way of Live - "Our Things" - merely Prestige, Possession and Position? Do we labor, incessantly, and resent any suggestion of God or Man that there are other and more worthy ends to aspire?

The Lenten Season is upon us. This can be our Problem or Possibility. If it is failing to be a period leading us to look up, to look in, and look out, as we take our spiritual reckoning, if it is failing, to lead us closer to our God, closer to our real selves, and closer to one another, than we had better true our sextant, for we sail perilous shallows.

Huron petition delivered

Huron Township's acting supervisor, George W. Moore, delivered a petition in Lansing yesterday calling for the ouster of missing Supervisor Douglas C. Rhoads.

Moore, who intended to deliver the petition to one of the governor's legal aides, Kenneth P. Frankland, gave it instead to Lt. Gov. James H. Brickley in Frankland's absence, a fact Moore thinks will delay action on it.

The document is a result of last week's meeting of the board which voted unanimously to recommend Rhoads' removal to the governor.

The request charges that Rhoads has been "willfully negligent of his duties as an elected officer in that since the 8th day of February, 1971, he has not in any manner performed the duties of the office to which he was elected."

Although all seven members' names appeared on the roll call report on the document, only four ultimately signed in. They were Moore, Harvey Carey, Raymond Kreyger and Donald Radabaugh.

The two who did not sign it, Edward Helwig, township treasurer, and Roy Baker, a trustee, are both Republicans, according to Moore.

"What we want is some action," Moore said. "What we expect is that the governor will refer the request to the attorney general's office to see if it's legal, which will probably cause a delay."

According to Moore, there are only four instances in which he can perform his duties as supervisor when the supervisor is outside the state: when he is ill; when he is on vacation; or when he has been removed by the governor.

"We have no idea where he is," Moore added, "or whether any of the first three apply. All we know is that he's absent."

Moore said there is one function that cannot be delegated to an acting supervisor; that of tax assessment.

Booklet in planning stage

At a recent meeting, the Board of Directors of the Romulus-Metro International Airport Chamber of Commerce agreed to contract with Tri-

State Publications, a Livonia, Michigan firm, for a comprehensive brochure telling "The Romulus Story".

"The Romulus Story" will cover every facet of the community, including history, scenic attractions, economic progress, schools, churches, hospitals, residential areas, cultural advantages, and other pertinent details.

The book will serve as a guide to the area for newcomers. It will also be used to attract new businesses and professional and technical people to the Romulus area. The Chamber will receive a minimum of 5,000 booklets free to answer inquiries about Romulus.

The booklets are paid for by participating advertisers.

Accident injures Taylor resident

A 25-year-old Taylor man is in fair condition today in Wayne County Hospital following an auto-mishap Friday on Van Born and Admiral in Romulus.

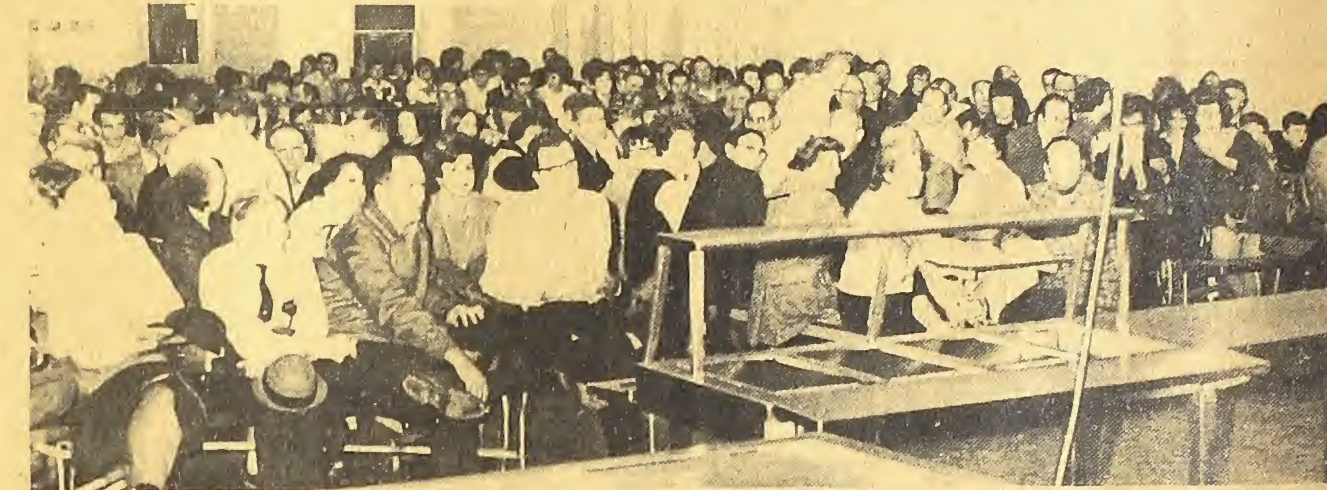

The traffic victim, Harold Still, was driving west on Van Born when the auto struck the rear of a car driven by Robert Lee Bunch, 18, of 10187 Central, Romulus.

Bunch and his passengers, Donna Lynn Roberts, 15, of 30778 Beverly, and Barbara Lynn Layne, 16, of 28472 Greenview, both in Romulus were also injured but treated and released at Wayne County General Hospital. Still was rushed to Wayne County General and placed in the intensive care unit. Doctors reported his condition "improving."

Two other passengers in the Bunch auto were not injured seriously in the mishap.

AIRPORT EXPANSION MEETING — A capacity crowd attended last week's meeting of the Van Buren Homeowners Association held at the Belleville High School Cafeteria. The meeting was called to discuss the recent announcement by the Wayne County Road Commission of the proposed expansion of the Willow Run Airport. State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak attended as well as other area officials. The homeowners heard some details of the proposed expansion and expressions of assistance, if possible, by officials. No representative from the Wayne County Road Commission was present to air the proposal in greater detail.

Willow Run expansion opposition mounting

By HENRY CANTIN

Opposition by Van Buren Township residents to the proposed expansion and development program for the Willow Run Airport is steadily increasing, it was disclosed Monday.

Petitions opposing the expansion plans are being circulated in Van Buren Township.

The Wayne County Road Commission, operators of the Detroit Metropolitan Airport, Romulus, last week announced plans calling for a $100 million expansion program for the Ypsilanti-based airport facilities.

The announcement came as a surprise to township officials.

Under preliminary plans as announced by the commission, Willow Run would become the world's largest air cargo facility.

The expansion plans would increase the area of the Willow Run Airport east to Belleville Rd., north of Ecorse Rd. It would take in 1,840 acres of Van Buren Township land, eliminate some residential homes, Van Buren Township offices and an elementary school.

The Feb. 23 meeting of the Van Buren Township Board was packed with between 60 and 70 township residents who voiced strong protests against the plan to develop Willow Run as a major air cargo center and reliever field for Metro Airport.

The worried residents whose homes are affected by the proposed expansion, voiced their complaints and questions to board members. Board members sympathized with the residents and promised them the township board will do everything it can to protect their property and interests.

The township officials couldn't offer sufficient answers to the residents at the meeting as they knew little more about the expansion proposal than the questioners.

Three residents were chiefly concerned about the loss of property to the airport development, the increased noise greater use of the airport by large cargo planes would bring and the increased danger of accidents by the planes as they make low approaches to the field.

Supervisor G. Elton

Gollwitzer told the residents that the township officials had not received copies of the 37-page Wayne County Road Commission proposal for the airport's expansion until Feb. 22, and that the report disclosed little more than already made public by the road commission.

On the question of circulating petitions against the proposal, Gollwitzer said that he was of the opinion that the petition should not be directed to the township board as it would have little effect since the decision on the development program for the airport will be made by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, and the Board of Regents of the University of Michigan, owners of the Willow Run Airport.

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners is being asked to put the county's full faith and credit behind the bond issues to finance the project.

The board instructed the township planning

Ordinance Board appointments told

Appointments to the City of Romulus' initial Ordinance Review Board has been approved by City Council.

The council had previously approved the creation of the Ordinance Review Board in the city's program for strict compliance to city codes and ordinances.

The appointments to the three member board were recommended by Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael. They are:

City Assessor Harold L. Reiner, 45, of 600-85 Sumpter Rd., Belleville; David J. Paul, 33, of 37457 Walnut, a member of the City's Department of Public Works; and a member of the city's legal firm of Elsmann, Young & O'Rourke.

The appointees will serve staggered terms and without compensation.

Reiner has been with the government administration of Romulus since 1968 when he was named deputy assessor. He is married and is the father of two children, a boy and girl who are both attending school

He was born in Waverly, Neb. Paul, who was born in Livonia, has been with the community's water and sewer department, now the DPW, since 1965. He is married and has two children.

The board will hear appeals of citizens who have received a violation warning notice from a city ordinance officer.

All such appeals are to be in writing and presented to the board before the date on the warning notice to permit the board to hear the appeal before such date.

The board may at its discretion permit extensions of time for correction of violations in cases of hardship, or where good cause is shown and in situations where it is warranted, or recommend a dismissal of the warning notice.

The board also may undertake studies concerning problems of areas of ordinance enforcement and direct recommendations for legislation to the City Council.

Accusations draw reply

Accusations and insinuations reportedly made by the Huron Township Citizens Committee on the reasons for recalling three present members of the Huron Township School Board drew up a united reply Monday from four recall supporters.

The recall election scheduled for March 29 is against Mrs. Howard (Mildred) Bennett, Mrs. Erma Palmiter and Harry Hartsuff.

A citizens group calling themselves the "People for Huron" initiated the recall.

The four township residents who have issued the reply are Rene F. Campeau, Ralph V. Dugan, who are former members of the Huron Board of Education, and James W. Pershing, president of the "People for Huron," and Lincoln W. Ward II, member of the "People for Huron" committee. Their joint statement follows:

"Because of the untrue accusations and insinuations being made by the Huron $5,789.29 in the township's general fund.

He allegedly used the state tax refund check to cover a shortage in the township sewer department receiving fund, a shortage the indictment says was caused by his "failure to deposit properly" between June 16 and Sept. 17 of 1970.

Krause, a life insurance agent, has served as township treasurer since 1966. He was defeated in the November general election when seeking the post of township supervisor.

Krause ordered to stand trial

James L. Krause, 32, former Huron Township Treasurer, accused of allegedly embezzling township funds, has been ordered to stand trial following a pretrial examination held before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Horace Gilmore last Wednesday. His personal bond of $5,000 was continued.

Krause, who resides at 35867 Violet, New Boston, is accused in an indictment handed out by the Wayne County Citizens Grand Jury of failure to deposit a quarterly state tax refund check in the amount of

Dedication planned for June

An elaborate dedication ceremony and grand opening is being planned for Romulus' new multi-million dollar municipal complex, Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael disclosed Monday.

The complex, under construction on a 16-acre land parcel located on the northwest corner of S. Wayne and Goddard Rds., is fast nearing completion.

City officials are hopeful of a June 6 opening. Dedication ceremonies will involve the complex's first two of four planned structures, the city's Municipal Building and the library.

The other two buildings proposed for the complex are a police headquarters and a civic center building.

The mayor announced that a 25-member Civic Grand Opening Committee has been formed to assist in preparing plans and appropriate programs for dedication of the community's first municipal structures.

Last week, the city council approved contracts with Michigan Bell Telephone Co. for the installation of telephone services in the complex.

Office furniture purchased some time ago is to be delivered next month, the mayor reported.

A bond issue in the amount of $1,975,000 to finance the cost of construction on the municipal building and library has been approved by the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing.

The bond issue has since been sold to the Manufacturers National Bank.

Our readers write

Belleville reader opposes trailer parks

To the editor:

I recently read a newspaper account, which reported "the plight of the trailer park residents and entrepreneurs." Does the governing body ever give proper acknowledgment of the needs of the tax paying electorate?

I have read nothing which indicated the financial drain placed on our community by the existence of a trailer park. We in Sumpter township are cursed with four trailer parks (four trailer parks in one community).

One of these park owners has freely admitted a million dollar operation and then pays a $2000 tax bill. I own a modest home and two acres of land (I pay $450 in taxes).

The residents of these trailer parks pay $3 per month (36 per year) for taxes. As you no doubt know $2 of this money goes to the local school district (imagine $24 a year to the school when even retirees are paying $200 to $300 per year to support the schools). If you are wondering about the credibility of these statements you have but to inquire of the schools servicing these "trailer towns."

In an attempt to ascertain the tax assessment in Sumpter I called the Wayne County tax assessors office. It was through one of the understanding and knowledgeable people in this office that I learned of the gross inequities in the tax structure as it pertains to the trailer folk and their patrons. I understand that most of the trailers in any park are far from mobile and often cost as much as $20,000.

My taxes jumped $100 this year. Did the trailer owners "fair share" increase commensurately?

If the recently proposed millage passes here (in the Lincoln Consolidated school district) will the trailer owners taxes increase? Of course the answer to any such questions must be a bitter and inequitable NO. But the affirmative results if one asks if these free loaders would also gain the benefits to the school which would accrue from the passage of said millage.

We are a school district which provides average educational facilities by paying an abnormal tax.

But the future seems to indicate the establishment of more of these trailer parks in our district. A blind, deaf and dumb person can see what the results will be.

The concern for the welfare of the trailer folk and park owner would be laudable and justifiable if they were in fact suffering from inequities. I have paid $30,000 for my home and am now informed that this investment was in what has been called the "dump and trailer capital of Wayne County." The very idea of a permanently situated $15,000 home being considered mobile and therefore not real taxable property is insane.

Can you imagine my neighbor (who owns a $15,000 home paying over $200 in school taxes while the trailer owner pays $24? The inuendoes and recriminations aside and just confronting the facts one must conclude that the home owner is in dire need of attention (notice I did not say tax relief or adjustment).

I am ready to pay a just amount for services rendered. My point is that others should also.

100 children from a trailer park equals $2,400 in payment to the servicing school district. This amount wouldn't pay half the yearly wage for one custodian!

Possibly a wealthy district might be able to absorb this cost, unfortunately our districts are the ones most in need of relief. Homes, industry even apartments we need, financial drains such as the trailer park presently faces us with we can't afford.

Board questioned

To the editor:

Please can anyone on our esteemed township board answer a few questions concerning our absent supervisor Mr. Rhoads?

Perhaps Mr. Carey, who used the Detroit News to proclaim his dedicated friendship to Mr. Rhoads and who so diligently sought to locate him? That proclamation belongs on the comic page.

And the following surely belongs to the Believe It or Not Column. I quote from the Detroit News, Thursday, Feb. 25 "The board named Moore "acting supervisor" and agreed to formally petition Gov. Miliken to remove Rhoads from office on the grounds of negligence."

"The trustees said there is no indication of any wrong doing on the part of the young supervisor. There are no missing funds and the township business was in good order when he vanished. Unquote.

Question No. 1 If Mr. Rhoads has done no wrong, stolen no funds and kept township business in good order-why was the charge negligent? No 2, if he were abducted or ill, would he be negligent; and by your own admission you say you have no idea why he is absent or where he might be.

I understand that "business as usual" must prevail and someone must be placed in charge. But I do not understand the negligence charge nor do I understand the haste on the part of the township to seek his immediate removal.

What's the rush all about Mr. Moore: Is someone threatening your ascent up the ladder? Someone should explain to you that ladder climbers are subject to a hasty descent in the event they step on a weak rung.

Human nature, frail as it is, is fraught with weakness and imperfections.

Mr. Moore take heed lest you stumble. I notice while attending the township board meeting where the above took the that the charter members of "Laugh In" who stood in the back and displayed their usual level of intelligence by finding it amusing at a supervisor, husband, father of two and a loving son is missing for 17 days.

Does this group also laugh at airplane crashes and earthquakes? Shame on you!

INDIGNANT.

Explains reading matter

To the editor:

In response to some questions that have been raised concerning some supplemental reading materials that have been used at Huron Junior High School, I would like to share with our parents the following procedures used in our building.

We are all aware of the need to encourage students to read more, both for leisure reading, for knowledge, and to encourage students to be aware of what is happening in the world around them. To his end we have always encouraged students to read.

In the seventh grade we use in conjunction with our literature classes a student publication entitled "Read" magazine. This publication is put out by the American Education Publications Company, the same company that publishes The Weekly Reader for elementary grades.

"Read" is a magazine that contains articles on current events, publishes creative writing by students, short stories, TV previews, crossword puzzles, etc. Last year we had all students subscribe to it. This year because of the Michigan Supreme Court decision on the charging of fees, we have not required it.

We have, however, purchased enough subscriptions for a class and we keep these in the room and use them from class to class, as a supplement to our English program.

In our eighth grade literature classes we receive book lists from TAB (teen-age book club) and Campus, both of which are publications from the Scholastic Book Services Company. Students may order books from these companies.

The teacher receives a teacher edition of the book lists that tells the reading level and suggested age levels for the use of the books. The teacher then tries to guide the students in their selection of books if they order. The big demand lately has been to order books on: The Patridge Family, Basketball Stars of 1971, and The Trapp FAMILY Singers (Sound of Music).

I sincerely hope that this small message can clear up some of the misunderstanding about the situation. However, if people still have questions we would welcome an opportunity to speak with them if they should care to call or come in.

LET'S TALK

ROTAVATION

The theory of Rotavation is to prepare the best possible seedbed in the least time with the least expense! Sound like a big job... look at the facts:

The Rotavator combines the work of three implements in one... Its powered blades break and turn the soil like a plow, slice the clods like a disc, and finish like the harrow... but even better. All of the soil and crop residues are perfectly blended and the seedbed is ready for planting after only one pass.

With Rotavation the rich topsoil stays on top where it belongs instead of being turned under. And instead of burying crop residues the Rotavator chops and mixes them into the seedbed to form soil building humus.

Instead of wasting tractor power, plowing deep, the Rotavator works only to seedbed depth... where seeds germinate and root structures form... and instead of leaving deep furrows exposed to erosion, the Rotavator leaves a level seedbed that holds moisture better.

That's what Rotavation is all about.

commission to make a study of the expansion proposal.

At last Thursday night's meeting of the Van Buren Township Homeowners Association, strong protests were voiced.

Approximately 400 persons attended the meeting, held at Belleville High School Cafeteria.

The association planned to transport a busload of area residents to a 10 a.m. Tuesday meeting in the City-County Building, Detroit, to protest and register their objections.

The meeting is to be held by the County Transportation Committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

The board of commissioners had referred the airport proposal to the committee.

Sex education suit postponed

A Wayne County Circuit Court suit involving the teaching of sex education in Huron Township schools has been postponed.

The suit, filed against the Huron Township Board of Education, was scheduled to be aired before Judge Edward S. Piggins Tuesday, but Larry S. Davidow, Detroit attorney, who instituting the court case, requested a postponement of the case.

It was reported that Davidow had broken his wrist in a fall and was under medication. A new court date is to be set.

The suit seeks to halt sex education until a full court hearing is held on the complaints in the suit.

A preliminary injunction asked by the plaintiffs was not issued by the court.

The suit was initiated by four Huron Township mothers. It names school Supt. Byron K. Anteliff and four school board members: President Carl Rush, Secretary Mrs. Jean Richert and Trustees Leo Kyko and Charles Larabell.

Veterans benefits exempt from taxation

Veterans benefits are generally exempt from taxation and need not be reported as income on income tax returns, Robert M. FitzGerald, director of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Detroit, said Monday.

FitzGerald said the only reportable item is interest earned on GI insurance dividends left on deposit or credit with the VA since this is considered earned income and not a veterans' benefit.

GI insurance dividends themselves are not taxable, FitzGerald pointed out. No proceeds from insurance policies are taxable, including GI insurance.

Other major tax exempt benefits are compensation and pension, GI Bill and other educational assistance, subsistence payments to vocational rehabilitation trainees, and grants for homes or autos to severely disabled veterans, FitzGerald said.

Romulus Area PTA Council okays drug education program

A community-wide drug education program was approved by delegates representing all eight units of the Romulus Area PTA Council when they met recently at Mt. Pleasant Elementary School.

The proposal, patterned after MYCON (Mayor's Youth Council On Narcotics), was developed after concerns were expressed by delegates at the September council meeting.

It will be presented for consideration to the Romulus Board of Education and the Romulus City Council, as a suggested beginning to deal with the abuse of drugs and narcotics in the Romulus area.

Guests from the school administration and high school staff met with delegates to inform them of school policies regarding building uses, areas of responsibility and lines of authority.

Assistant Superintendent William E. Jakad, high school principal Gerald Nault and Assistant Principal Earl Lamb explained procedures and answered questions. Faud Berry, delegate from Merriman Elementary PTA, announced an "adults only" drug information program to be held 7:30 p.m. March 31, at Merriman School, 15303 Merriman Rd.

A panel of experts will be present with facts and illustrations of the results of drug abuses, he said.

David Ferdon, faculty advisor for the Romulus Theatre Arts Club, told delegates about the new high school auditorium and its possible application toward development of cultural arts programs for the community. He enlisted PTA support for a play being prepared by the drama club for presentation April 1-3. Each elementary unit took tickets to sell in his area.

Mrs. Betty Hill and Mrs. Mary Ann Treder, co-chairmen for the annual installation of officers banquet in May, asked for adult talent from the community to perform at the affair.

The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. March 30 at Beverly Elementary School, 35408 Beverly Rd.

Romulus winners announced

Miss or Mr. District No. 20 will be crowned. Donation is $1.

Beverly holds founders day

The Beverly Elementary School observed PTA Founder's Day on last Wednesday, (Feb. 24) by sharing a ham dinner with representatives from other PTA units, past presidents, principals, teachers, administrators, school board members, parents and friends.

Perry Gray, group president, hosted the affair and awarded corsages to past presidents Mrs. Geneva Clark and Mrs. Sally Arrington. Beverly School's first principal, Mrs. Lorena Burton, who was also guest speaker, was honored with a corsage.

Mrs. Lorena Burton, state and federal coordinator for the Romulus Community School district, spoke about the education of a child. She told of the importance of parental involvement in planning programs and inspiring the youngster to achieve. She introduced the film, "To Touch A Child", that told of the community-school concept and its application in Flint.

A representative of the YWCA sponsored pre-school nursery explained the "Y" involvement in the Romulus community-school program inviting mothers of pre-schoolers to avail themselves of the service.

Guests were introduced with special thanks to Mrs. Zeffie Beaneum, Mrs. Horace Stevens, Mrs. Perry Gray, Mrs. Sally Arrington, Mrs. Mary Humphrey and Mrs. LaVerne Warren, who had prepared the dinner.

Macrome weaving demonstration slated by YMCA

Macrome weaving will be demonstrated by Mrs. Carole Allen when the young matrons group, sponsored by the Western Wayne County YWCA, meets at 10 a.m. tomorrow (Thursday) at the Hilton Inn, 31500 Wick Rd.

The Matrons group, which meets twice monthly during the hours of the "Y" sponsored pre-school nursery, plans future meetings dealing with children's health problems, community affairs, self improvement and crafts.

Car pools are being arranged from the Special Services building, 7335 Washington St., to the meeting place.

The YWCA is preparing for its annual March membership drive, offering members the services of the Romulus nursery plus local activities.

Classes are also available at various centers throughout the county, with information available from the YWCA office, 1034 Monroe, Dearborn, or by calling LO 1-4110.

The Romulus Special Program Committee reports that it is making plans for a teen center, investigating sites, and making organizational arrangements.

Another community cries for tax reform

With the defeat by a 3-2 margin of a three-mill school millage in Ypsilanti Monday, voters of still another community have cried out to our state leadership for desperately needed reform in taxation.

How many more millage requests have to be defeated at the polls before our elected officials act on the necessary revamping of our tax methods, we don't know.

The millage in Ypsilanti was for an additional three mills to the current operational mark of 22.22 mills, six of which will expire at the end of next year.

It is in the area of new millages that the public has taken the firmest stand. Of the 52 millage increases sought in the last six months of last year, 30 were defeated.

Voters, apparently realizing they can't cut back on funds already allotted to their schools, haven't nearly so opposed to millage renewals. That count has been 22 years and only nine nays in the same six-month span.

Those elections combining renewal and additional millages also have been received favorably, with 10 of 13 being approved by the voters.

When the voters appear to be telling our elected officials, who too often have deaf ears,

25 YEARS AGO

March 3 1946- Local employers and various service and civic organizations will be asked to assist the Wayne office of the United States Employment Service in a statewide search for suitable employment for returning veterans, ex-war plant workers and other job seekers. It was announced by Stern Parisee, manager of the local office.

A bill of injunction against the members of the Garden City Board of Education, City Treasurer Douglas Waddell and City Assessor Enos Schaller to prevent collection, levying or disposal of school taxes voted in an allegedly "illegal and void" election May 21, 1945, was filed in Wayne Circuit Court this week.

March 3, 1956 Between 8,000 and 10,000 new homes will be built in Nankin Township in the next few years, according to Township Clerk William Engle.

Snowmobiling has become what is probably the fastest growing recreational sport in Michigan. It has inspired both avid enthusiasts and stern critics.

The Secretary of State's office registered nearly 150,000 snowmobiles last fiscal year. There will undoubtedly be a sharp increase in numbers for this fiscal year.

Snowmobiles have been an unquestioned boost to the economy. The State Department of Commerce, in a recent report, estimates that snowmobiles will bring some $82 million into the state economy this year.

In addition to the contribution to the economy, snowmobiles are putting a new economic premium on the

Speaking of schools

Gymnastics a growing art

The human body in order to function normally and well must be educated mentally, emotionally, socially, and physically. To accomplish this purpose, girls are taught specific physical skills needed to participate in exercise routines in gymnastic classes.

Gymnastics is becoming an essential part of modern physical education not only at Van Buren's Junior High Schools; but at schools all over the country.

Unlike team sports activities with defined skills and established rules, gymnastics is concerned with an individual, and the way in which that individual moves. This is what makes it such a special field, for it challenges the heart of all activity-the act of movement.

Through gymnastics a girl acquires qualities of movement that are most difficult to learn-smoothness, poise, gracefulness. The students are taught not only to perform difficult stunts, but to do so in a way that makes these stunts look effortless.

Gymnastics is of vital importance at the junior high age level. Teenage girls have the tendency to feel their movements are awkward. Many of them don't realize their potential coordination and without encouragement would never develop it.

Gymnastics allows them to become aware of the extensiveness of their movements before they reach the stage of inhibition. They not only have self-confidence in themselves but they also understand the basic concepts of movement which can influence every other type of physical activity they pursue.

In addition, it helps to keep the body fit and in good physical condition and the girls tend to become concerned over their physical appearance.

Most of the students participating in Van Buren's program have not had the opportunity before to work on gymnastic equipment. With this equipment, they have learned to develop either a floor exercise consisting of various acrobatic stunts in combination with dance steps, or to create a routine on apparatus involving a balance beam and uneven parallel bars.

The two pieces of large equipment are solely used for girls' gymnastic competition. The balance beam is approximately sixteen feet long, less than four inches wide and is elevated about three and one-half feet.

A performance on the beam requires great stability and control.

By MRS. MARY BARIBEAU
Physical Education teacher
Van Buren Public Schools

The uneven parallel bars are the newest event in girls gymnastics and are uniquely different because instead of demanding stability they stress body flexibility.

The two bars are displaced in a fashion that allows the performer to do continuous movements between and around them.

No matter what phase of gymnastics a student decides to concentrate on, the final results of her work shows great accomplishments. Driven by self-motivation, the girls come up with beautifully executed routines filled with expression and imagination.

Even more important perhaps is the great experience of discovering ways to move which they consider beyond their ability. Through a gymnastic program, the girls discover that the ordinary habit of everyday movement can be transformed into an individual art.

This program begins with activities that are started in junior high school, are expanded in the senior high school, and will be a continued activity through adulthood. The end result will be increased productivity and good health.

Replies to letter

To the editor:

May I reply to Mr. Antcliff's letter of Wednesday, Feb. 24, entitled "Strange Words Written." Mr. Antcliff says quote "The judge will state that if the district starts any sex education then the parents have the right to have their child exused from such instruction. This is something the Huron School District agrees with."

"In fact, a form which clearly guarantees the parents' right was sent to each parent even though no program now exists." unquote.

Are we to believe that permission forms were sent out to institute such a program at some future date?

That statement is an insult to even the lowest level of human intelligence. Does Mr. Antcliff also authorize sending permission forms to parents for class trips when no such trips are planned? Or would you send home physical examination forms for football if we sponsored no football team?

Try this one for size. After your attack on Pat Wisely, you accuse her of trying to further her political goals (same article). I've lived in Huron Township 23 years and at no time has Pat Wisely or her family or her grandparents ever had any political aspirations other than being conscientious voters which I assume even you will concede is the right and a privilege.

Indeed there are strange words written, Mrs. Antcliff, and you are the author. You seem unduly concerned that the Citizens Committee will spread the word that they "have won a great victory in court." I'm sure that whatever occurs in court, whatever is said, who says it and the judge's decision will all be reported by unbiased news coverage. Therefore aren't you premature with your assumptions.

Win, lose or draw, the people of Huron Township are asking questions and expecting direct answers. These answers have not been forthcoming hence the source of the present debate.

Fed Up

Asks notice

To the editor:

Residents of Huron Township please take note. Last Tuesday evening, Feb. 18, at the fire hall in Waltz, a meeting was held by the Citizens Committee for the purpose of answering questions concerning the district's schools and their policies. This meeting was well attended by People for Huron also.

Mr. Ralph Dugan stated that he is frightened when he hears of parents wanting to remove books from shelves or censor reading material, because this is what happened in Hitler's Germany. I agree it did happen, it also happened throughout Europe, also in Russia, more recently in south parts of Argentina.

Obviously, history was not one of his better subjects because his lesson ended there. What he didn't say was that the fires consumed those countries' history books, poetry, music, religious works and historical documents.

The Citizens Committee is objecting to some books which are being questioned in many school districts across America which are nothing more than street language. Do we wonder why these phrases are engraved on our school desks? These books do nothing to improve the mind or assist the students to seek a higher level of thought.

What disturbs me most is that two rows of teachers also present, actually applauded this. Surely our teachers must know the difference. Their applause only served the purpose of increasing Mr. Dugan's hat size.

Parents please listen with a sharp ear and think about some of the half truths of which this is only one of many. Think then act. Mrs. Eileen Kiser.

Truck story rebutted

To the editor:

I'd like to state a few facts in rebuttal to the recent front page picture and story about the so-called bothersome trucks as Mayor Smith refers to them.

In the first place, let's argue the facts pertaining to Sumpter Rd., itself. It has been remarked that these trucks are destroying the road. This is only partly correct. I've lived my entire life in this area and I can avidly state, that Sumpter Rd. has never been anything but one of the worst and very likely the poorest constructed roads in all of Wayne County for the last twenty five years.

It was stated for paving some ten years ago, but as always, its still being overlooked. Ask yourself where the thirty five hundred dollars per rig that's being paid the county in road taxes on these trucks alone is being diverted to?

Maybe most people aren't aware of the taxes these trucks pay to earn the right to travel. The rate is approximately $1,500 a license plate, I'd say they've paid more for the right to use these roads than we automobile owners have.

If there are some 287 trucks driving on this road at present that means there's been practically one million dollars a year in highway taxes paid, only to be used elsewhere, but where.

In past years, Belleville Rd. has been repaved and widened, and Haggerty Rd. between I-94 and Ecorse Rd. has recently been newly paved, but not Sumpter Rd. as usual.

Oh, I expect Wayne County Road Commission will have a dozen answers or shall we say excuses, but it will still boil down to just a lot of hot air. They will undoubtedly use the excuse now available to them, that the road is being prepared for paving, and widening. Possibly so, but the right of way for this improvement was purchased over a year ago. How much longer will they pacify us with hopes?

Let's give a little credit where it's due, concerning the truck drivers that travel our historic road. The facts concerning what they face every day trying to make an honest living have been omitted.

For instance, nothing has ever been printed in regards to the rubbish truck driver that turned his entire rig over endangering his own life to save many, when an absent-minded gasoline tanker pulled out directly in his path. I hate to think of the terrible tragedy that could have occurred had he been as inconsiderate as they have been accused of being.

That's only one instance. There are many more too numerous to mention.

The only honest thing anyone who drives Sumpter Rd. can do would be to put themselves in one of these truckers' place. A family man with responsibilities, traveling a road barely wide enough to accommodate two cars, trying to take to the shoulder for our school buses and a few drivers who tend to take their road tax dollars in the center, with a full load and the constant threat of turning their entire rig over if they go off on the edge of the road too far. It doesn't paint a pretty picture does it?

Perhaps many will say if things are that bad, why then don't they find a safer route. They are still looking for one that is as direct to the dump as the one they now travel.

Gives book selection

To the editor:

The following information is supplied in response to questions raised by some members of the Huron School District in regard to text book selection in the Huron High School.

Hard covered text books are selected from samples submitted by various text book publishers. Final selection is usually made by a faculty committee before the book is presented to the curriculum committee for their approval. After approval by the curriculum committee, the text is presented to the board of education for their approval.

Paperback text books for use in the classroom are selected in a different manner. Most paperback books are selected from booklists submitted by publishers our book suppliers. These book lists are recommended for high school students by the publishers. In most cases, the paperback books are selected by the individual teachers for use in their classes and do not have prior approval of the curriculum committee or the board of education.

In previous years, paperback books sold in the store were selected from a list of approved books by teachers in the English department. These books were then sold to the students through the student council bookstore.

This year, however, since the school district now furnishes books for the students, books are no longer sold to the students through the bookstore.

Mobile home owners don't pay their way

To the editor:

I recently read a newspaper account, which reported "the plight of the trailer park residents and entrepreneurs." Does the governing body give proper acknowledgment of the needs of the tax paying electorate? I have read nothing which indicated the financial drain placed on our community by the existence of a trailer park.

We in Sumpter township are cursed with four trailer parks, (four trailer parks in one community.) One of these park owners has freely admitted a million dollar operation and then pays a $2,000 tax bill. I own a modest home and two acres of land; I pay $450 in taxes. The residents of these trailer parks pay $3 per month ($36 per year) for taxes.

As you no doubt know $2 of this money goes to the local school district (imagine $24 a year to the school when even retirees are paying two to $300 per to support the schools). If you are wondering about the credibility of these statements you have but to inquire of the schools servicing these "trailer towns."

In an attempt to ascertain the tax assessment in Sumpter, I called the Wayne County tax assessor's office; it was through one of the understanding and knowledgeable people in this office that I learned of the gross inequities in the tax structure as it pertains to the trailer folk and their patrons.

I understand that most of the trailers in any park are far from mobile and often cost as much as $20,000. My taxes jumped $100 this year. Did the trailer owners "fair share" increase commensurately?

If the recently proposed millage passes here (in the Lincoln Consolidated school district) will the trailer owners taxes increase? Of course the answer to any such questions must be a bitter and inequitable NO. But the affirmative results if one asks if these free loaders would also gain the benefits to the school which would accrue from the passage of said millage.

We are a school district which provides average educational facilities by paying an abnormal tax.

But the future seems to indicate the establishment of more of these trailer parks in our district. A blind, deaf and dumb person can see what the results will be.

The concern for the welfare of the trailer folk and park owner would be laudable and justifiable if they were in fact suffering from inequities. I have paid $30,000 for my home and am now informed that this investment was in what has been called the "dump and trailer capital of Wayne County". The very idea of a permanently situated $15,000 home being considered mobile and therefore not real taxable property is insane.

Can you imagine my neighbor (who owns a $15,000 home paying over $200 in school taxes while the trailer owner pays $24? The inuendoes and recriminations aside and just confronting the facts one must conclude that the home owner is in dire need of attention (notice I did not say tax relief or adjustment).

I am ready to pay a just amount for services rendered. My point is that others should also.

100 children from a trailer park equals $2,400 in payment to the serving school district. This amount wouldn't pay half the yearly wage for one custodian!

Big Brother program needs volunteers for county area

Wayne County needs Big Brothers and you can be one. Charles Dick, of Romulus, who is directing an area-wide drive for volunteers, described the movement. He said:

"The movement is a service that brings a mature man into a personal, individual relationship with a growing boy who might otherwise lose his way in life. The essential principle is "One Man to One Boy."

The movement has been a significant human effort in the prevention and correction of juvenile delinquency.

The basis of the program is the need for male identification, the absence of which may create social problems.

Who is the Little Brother: Dick states that the Little Brother is a child needing friendship, affection, advice and guidance. He may be in difficulty with the law; he may be socially maladjusted; he may be fatherless or just an unhappy, unfortunate boy in need of male influence and companionship.

The boys are referred to the movement by the courts, public schools, social agencies, clergymen and church workers and many parents and relatives. The ages are from eight to 17.

Who is the Big Brother:

The Big Brother is a mature, stable, personable man of good character who is willing to invest of his time and himself in a youngster who needs friends.

Big Brothers are volunteers. They are people who understand and appreciate the act of friendship. Volunteers after orientation are assigned to a child based insofar as possible on common interests, special skills or hobbies and where indicated a mutual religious faith.

"Big Brother work for the adult is a challenging and satisfying experience," said Dicky, one that stimulates a deep and absorbing interest in human beings and their affairs. It is a work which offers unique opportunities for direct personal service to other human beings.

Dick announced that Adult Big Brothers are needed from all races. He asked for volunteers to help the unhappy, maladjusted boy find the right road.

To volunteer for the Big Brother movement call Dick at 941-1924 or Big Brother at 321-1666.

Dr. Thomas Troxell, dentist, and Dr. Myron Gerber, optometrist, provided the program concerning child care in their respective fields.

Dr. Gerber related the sight problems of the child in school and his chance for success as he develops his education. Dr. Troxell detailed the care and development of the child's teeth.

Considerable interest was shown in the talks by the number of questions presented during a question and answer period.

Following the doctors' talks, a short business session was held by the PTO. It was highlighted by the presentation of the Sponsor Charter of Girl Scout Troop 668.

The Girl Scouts Cindy Wilkinson and Denise Patterson presented the charter to PTO Chairman Catherine Morris.

Refreshments were served at the end of the meeting.

Spearman's sets opening

The new and larger Spearman's Fine Foods Restaurant, located at Wick and Wayne Roads will hold grand opening ceremonies at 4 p.m. Friday.

The restaurant, formerly Spearman's Little Skipper, has been completely renovated and remodeled both inside and out by Robert Plank Builders. The cost of the project was more than $35,000.

The grand opening will extend through March 7.

The restaurant is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Diane) Spearman, 35563 Wick Rd., Romulus. Mrs. Spearman is a native of Romulus and her husband has been a resident for more than 15 years.

The community's newest eatery has a complete line of steaks, chops and sea foods at reasonable prices. It has a seating capacity of 100 persons, with both a dining area and snack bar. Facilities are available for banquets and weddings.

Future plans call for parking lot expansion and additional lighting.

Youths free on bond

Five Sumpter Township youths are free today on $5,000 bond following their arraignments on charges of armed robbery.

Four of the youths, all in their late teens, are accused of "sticking-up" the Bella Hi Pizzeria, 10 Potter near Huron River Dr. in Belleville Sunday. The hold-up netted the youths some $70.

The fifth youth is accused of robbing the Union 76 Service Station at I-94 and Belleville Rd. in Belleville Feb. 7.

Sheriff's Det. Doyle Kendrick asked that the names of the youths be withheld until two of the youths finished high school. Kendrick said, he did not want the youths to be harassed by schoolmates.

All five are set for pre-trial examination before 34th

District Judge James Stone. Four of the youths were originally arrested by Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol deputies who spotted a car used in the Bella Hi hold-up. The youths were in the auto and later identified.

'Cold Turkey' will tickle your funny bone

By HOWARD ALLEN
EAGLE DRAMA CRITIC

A quick check of Variety's box office reports will probably show that "Cold Turkey" is far from the most popular film in Raleigh, Durham and Winston-Salem, for Norman Lear's farcical commentary on the tobacco industry and smokers is broad, pointed and about as subtle as a heart attack.

Dick Van Dyke stars as an ambitious minister in Eagle Rock, Iowa, a shabby dying town eyeing the revitalization which might come if a martial factory can be lured to town—but this is not likely without an expensive facelifting.

Eagle Rock's chance comes when a glib public relations counselor, Bob Newhart, convinces his decaying boss, tobacco tycoon that he can emulate Alfred Nobel, who is remembered not for his discovery of dynamite or his munitions empire, but for his prizes. And so Horton offers any town in America $25 million if it can quit smoking cold turkey for one month.

After an extremely leisurely start, Lear manages to dissect the anatomy of a small town with the authority, if not the subtlety of Sinclair Lewis. Van Dyke, as Rev. Clayton Brooks, cons and bullies an entire town of 4,000 into signing the smoking pledge.

Amos Bush and the far-right members of his totalitarian patriotic Christopher Mott club sign up only when promised that they can police the town against smuggled in smokes. Dr. Proctor, the most confirmed tobacco addict, has to be blackmailed into signing by threatening to foreclose on his hospital. And Tom Poston, the town drunk, when threatened with assault by Rev. Brooks for refusing to sign, decides to take a month's vacation.

The month's ordeal is a hilarious nightmare. Tempers become savage. A school crossing guard roars at a child crossing the wrong way like a guard threatening to bayonet a prisoner approaching a deadline. Eating becomes an orgy. Sex picks up.

But the real fun starts when America begins to take an interest in Eagle Rock. Tourists are arriving and suddenly the once hacking residents are prospering opening food concessions and souvenir stands. Rev. Brooks ponders whether he has saved the town only to cost its soul until he makes the cover of Time.

The ending is rousing, with Newhart's machinations to make sure the town doesn't win, and the final ironical statement in which the town gets a missile plant which pollutes the air and fills the lungs as bad as tobacco. Yet Lear spoils his climax with a superfluous and melodramatic round of shootings far to macabre for the context of the film.

'Empire Builders' --eery nightmare

By HOWARD ALLEN
EAGLE DRAMA CRITIC

A short decade ago the University of Detroit Theatre was making he necessary obeisances to Shakespeare and Shaw and not much more. Contrast that today with a fully functioning department, a student theater and a fully functioning production unit which, if it still lacks adequate space, is capable of turning out such masterpieces of the macabre as Boris Vian's "The Empire Builders."

Grand Guignol is content with an occasional ax murderer or vampire, but surely there is more true terror in the soul of man and the true world he has built.

It is all expressed in an eery nightmare of a stage which unfolds like the grotesque petals of a Venus Fly Trap to reveal a crumbling apartment, demented like the crazy angles of the world of Dr. Caligari and thoroughly Kafkaesque. What designers Harold Thrasher and Michael Huesman did to Stage 113 was worth seeing even if there was no play on the stage.

But there was—and "The Empire Builders" is man's eternal nightmare, the irrational flight from his own inevitable destruction, personified in this case by the Schmurz, a bleeding, reviled mummy of a creature which Clive Barnes suggested may be a variant on the German word for pain or a pen-name for Vian's potboilers. Presumably the Schmurz is the death we carry with us, suppressed but unsuppressable.

Leon and Anna, the couple who flee ever higher in their nightmare apartment building, each time into a more decaying and less roomy apartment, each time losing their possessions and their respect, running from a nightmare sound which may be an echo of their own life, but never able to shake the Schmurz who is always waiting for them—Leon and Anna are surely the most appalling Everyman who attempt to rationalize their own failures and fears, to the utter disgust of their young daughter who despises them with the honesty of youth.

Leon and Anna beat and kick and whip and spit on the Schmurz, who endures stoically, knowing that the family is decaying, represented both by loss of family members as they frantically flee, by inevitable death or, at the physical level by the growing number of bandages the family wears. Only Zenobia, the daughter, does not beat the Schmurz—perhaps she is too young to fear him.

The ultimate course of flight at last traps Leon, alone and a ruin, in an attic garret with no further refuge—but the Schmurz is still there, patiently awaiting the inevitable.

The nightmare was terrifyingly brought to life by director Dominic Missimi, with A. Neil Thackaberry starring as Leon, the shambles of a fleeing man who most ably handled the entire monologue which constitutes the final act.

Jean Dotterweich, whose eyes were partly mad, partly coy and partly forgetful, was sometimes most impressive as Anna, the mother. Mary Boyer as the daughter, Katherine Cantillon as the maid, Charles as a neighbor were in varying degrees successful, but it was difficult to upstage James Stahl as the stoical, agonized Schmurz.

It is not impossible that a suicide concessionaire, stationed at the exit, might have done a land-office business.

Arts, crafts at mall

Art works and crafts by metropolitan Detroit artists will be exhibited at the Livonia Mall, Seven Mile Rd. and Middlebelt, from Thursday through March 13. Approximately 1000 paintings and many craft items will be displayed throughout the mall.

There will be a number of demonstrations each day in the art of ceramics, portrait painting, easel painting, glass-blowing and acrylic painting. There will also be demonstrations in a variety of other mediums and materials.

The exhibit will be open to the public daily from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Sundays from noon until 5 p.m.

Area mayors will travel near, far for exchange

Various area officials will be traveling as far as Sault Ste. Marie or as near as River Rouge for the May 17 Mayor's Exchange Day of the annual Michigan Week Celebration.

Westland Mayor Eugene McKinney wins the honors for the longest trip by being paired with Mayor John Harrington of Sault Ste. Marie. His journey will be nearly 280 miles, as the crow flies.

Inkster Mayor Edward Bivens Jr. needs only to travel to River Rouge to exchange with Mayor John F. McEwan.

Wayne Mayor Patrick Norton will travel 140 miles to Big Rapids to exchange with Mayor Robert Horan of that city.

Norton had arrangements made for him to travel to Big Rapids, because the city has a young mayor, a population of approximately 21,000 people, counting the Students of Ferris State University, and is considered a "Ford Motor Company" town.

Garden City will not exchange mayors May 17, but Mayor James Lowe plans another activity to mark the day.

Belleville Mayor Royce Smith, will trade jobs with Bancroft Village President Horton Springs, and Romulus Mayor Hyle Carmichael will trade with Muskegon Mayor Edward J. Stewart.

More than 408 cities were paired for the annual Mayor's Exchange Day.

The mayors of Madison Heights and Warren will only cross their borders to exchange, as the luck of the draw would have it.

An ordinance to guide and promote the public health, welfare and safety of Sumpter Township by regulating Mobile Home or Trailer Parks in the township has been amended.

The amendment relates to submission of construction plans and specifications when seeking a building or alteration permit, roadways and pavement widths, recreation space, greenbelts and landscaping, and minimum site size and yard requirements, Township Supervisor Elmer Parraghi reported.

The mayors of those two cities must travel 290 miles to exchange.

Governing bodies taking part in the drawing were divided into three categories: those under 2,000 population, those from 2,000 to 7,000 and those over 7,000.

The present ordinance was approved by the township board Feb. 9 and became effective last Wednesday, Feb. 24.

Housing abuses receive study

A special subcommittee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners has been established to hold public hearings on alleged abuses of Federal housing programs in Detroit and greater Wayne County.

The five-member body held its first meeting at noon Monday (March 1) in Room 902 of the City-County Building to plan its course of action.

Co-chairmen of the subcommittee are Commissioners Rose Mary C. Robinson, D-District 17, and Paul Silver, D-District 11, both of Detroit.

Its other members are Albert J. Zak, of Hamtramck, D-District 8; Edward Jones, Detroit, D-District 16; and Charmie Currie, Detroit, D-District 6.

The subcommittee was appointed by Commissioner John J. McCann, of Livonia, D-District 26, chairman of the board's Health, Education and Welfare Committee. He and Board Chairman Robert E. FitzPatrick, D-District 13, will serve as ex officio members.

Creation of the subcommittee was authorized by the Board of Commissioners Feb. 4. At the same time, the board asked the prosecuting attorney to prepare petitions for local and Federal grand jury investigations into the programs directed by the Detroit office of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. These include various Federal Housing Administration (FHA) programs.

The Board's actions followed disclosures of numerous instances in which investors bought old homes, mostly in Detroit's inner city, at low prices and later sold them to low-income families at much higher prices under FHA subsidy programs on a basis of high FHA appraisals. McCann told the board that the evidence presented to his committee was such "as to almost overwhelmingly indicate a pattern of fraud."

Incumbent victories rule at PCHA election

By JOE CHAREST

Tight races characterized the annual elections of the People's Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) held last night at Annapolis Hospital in Wayne.

Eight board positions were available, but incumbent victories were the rule, as a 100 per cent board re-elected all but one member. Donald J. Pizzimenti not only faced a strong challenge for the chairmanship of PCHA, but managed only a narrow victory over challenger John Trellay, retaining his at large seat.

Pizzimenti, who has been on the Authority since 1960, defeated Trellay, a former member of the directors from Trenton, by one vote.

F.G. Thetford, the second at-large incumbent and a board member for almost 18 years, withdrew from the race in favor of Pizzimenti following a first-ballot three-way tie for the second available seat.

Edward Dudek, a former Inkster representative who did not win reappointment from the city in January, was the winner of an at-large seat on the first ballot. He picked up 21 votes to 19 apiece for Thetford, Pizzimenti and Trellay.

At-large representative Tracy E. Salisbury strongly challenged Pizzimenti for the chairmanship. The Ecorse councilman missed taking the job by a single vote.

In the race for the vice-chairmanship of the board, incumbent Martin D. Inman retain his position by defeating newly-elected member Dudek by a 24-22 margin.

Treasurer R.J. Remer of Flat rock won unanimous re-election to that position, the only total victory of the evening.

Men arraigned in Metro robbery

Two men are free today on $1,000 personal bond following their arraignment Tuesday charged with the robbery at the Metropolitan Airport Halloween night.

The accused, Charles Edward Brown of 30187 Liberty, Inkster, and Larry James Reed of 30060 Pine Ct., Inkster, stood mute on the unarmed robbery charged before Judge James McCartney.

Sheriff's Det. Arthur Torikian and Det. Jack Hopkins made the arrest after intensive investigation and interrogation of suspect making several arrests and closing some 100 burglaries and robberies in the process.

A Hoste International employee, Marianne Bagazi, was carrying a cash metal box containing $274.16 at Metropolitan Airport Oct. 31 at 9:14 p.m. when three men knocked her down and stole the box.

Brown and Reed had been identified as two of the suspects. Pre-trial examination is set for March 10 in 34th District Court.

State eases restrictions on employees' politics

The State Civil Service Commission has liberalized its political activity restrictions for the State's 47,000 classified employees.

Final approval was given a rules change permitting state employees to seek any non-partisan elective office provided they get departmental approval and no conflict of interest is involved. They formerly were limited to candidacy for non-partisan charger commission member or school board member only. State employees who seek partisan elected office will still be required to resign when they file nominating petitions, post a filing fee, or are nominated by a party caucus or convention.

State Civil Service Chairman Ernest Brown, Jr. said the objective of the change "is to limit our restrictions to those we feel

New bill would expand veteran school benefits

State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus has introduced legislation to expand the system of tuition-free education for children of servicemen killed or totally disabled in wartime.

Such children are now allowed to attend any state-supported college on secondary school without payment of tuition, matriculation fees or athletic fees.

The Mahalak proposal would broaden this to include not only persons whose legal residence was in Michigan before they went into service, but also persons who did not live in the state absolutely necessary to assure experienced career civil servants who can loyally serve any administration when there is a change in elected political leadership."

He noted the specific changes approved had been advocated by organized employees and had been circulated to state departments for comment prior to approval.

New affidavit bill aimed at township

State Representative Edward E. Mahalak, (D) Romulus, has introduced legislation to require that persons who become candidates for township office file an affidavit with their nominating petition or filing fee.

This is presently required of persons who run for county, state or national office in a primary election, Mahalak explains.

Such affidavits contain the candidate's name, address, the ward and precinct where he is registered, whether he is qualified to vote in the primary election, the number of years he has lived in the state and county and any other information which may be required to fully identify the candidate.

"A township elected office is in its own way a public trust just as county, state or national offices are public trusts," Mahalak pointed out. "I therefore feel that township voters should have the same right to have their candidates identified by affidavit. This requires only a little extra effort on the part of candidates while it adds more dignity to township elected offices."

The affidavit is filed with either the county clerk or the secretary of state. Two copies are filed. If they are filed with the clerk, one copy is forwarded to the secretary of State.

Edgemont names champ

Lisa Chen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Allen Chen, 11933 Belleville Rd. has won the Edgemont School Spelling Bee, reports Principal Sam LoPresto.

The School Spelling Bee was held Feb. 24 with the top ten spellers from both the fifth and sixth grades taking part. Runner-up was Robin Samonek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Samonek, 360 Charles St. The winning word was "severe." Rounding out the five top spellers were Marga White, Susan Krebs and Laura Coley.

Miss Chen will now advance to the District Spelling Bee to be held March 24. This will include winners from the Elementary and Junior High Schools in the area.

Crossing action coming

A complaint by the City of Romulus to officials of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad about the conditions of the railroad's crossing at Goddard Rd. has brought a reply from the railroad that corrective measures will be taken as soon as possible.

The city council had complained that the road at the crossing was filled with large chuck holes and was in bad need of repair. Joseph F. O'Keefe, industrial representative for the railroad, told council by letter that action will be taken, immediately in improving the road at the crossing.

Bids sought

The Township of Sumpter is requesting sealed bids on the purchase of a 1967 Chevrolet ordinance car, Clarence J. Hoffman Jr., township clerk, announced Monday.

Deadline for the submission of bids is 5 p.m. March 19. The bids that are received will be opened at the March 23 township board meeting.

Krajewski wins regional mat title

GARY KRAJEWSKI
Regional Champ

By TOM MOORADIAN

An avalanche of rewards and opportunities continued to pile up for 11 survivors of regional wrestling competition Saturday night as three came through with glittering gold medal performances at Walled Lake Western High School.

Laymon McLilley, (John Glenn) Bruce Geier (Franklin) and Gary Krajewski (Belleville) captured first place honors at the regionals and will head a 11-man area delegation to the State Class A finals which will be held on Friday and Saturday at Calvin College near Grand Rapids.

Also qualifying for the final round of high school mat competition are Mike Davis (John Glenn), Randy Claborn (Wayne Memorial), John Arrington (Romulus), Keith Simons (Belleville) — all of whom placed second. Charlie Young (John Glenn), Tom Byrem (Garden City West) and Michael Cross (Romulus) wound up in third place and Jim Cook (John Glenn) in fourth to round out the area's qualifiers.

Glenn, which led the area contingent to the regionals at Walled Lake Western with six grapplers, managed to qualify four of them.

As a team Coach Bob Lusk's Rockets finished fourth in a field of 30 high schools. Glenn piled up a total of 31 team points to trail the defending champ, Ypsilanti (67), Ann Arbor Pioneer (45), and Trenton (36) in the standings.

Other area scores include Belleville, in sixth with 22 team points; Romulus, with 16 in eighth place; Livonia Franklin, with 12, in 11th place; Wayne Memorial, with 10 points, in 14th place; Garden City West, with four, in 21th place; while Garden

City East failed to pick up a point.

Though it was the best regional wrestling finish in the school's history, Lusk said: "I felt we could have sneaked one more through to the state finals and therefore I'm not completely satisfied."

The Glenn coach had nothing but praise for McLilley who captured the Rockets' lone gold medal.

McLilley, a senior, launched his assault for the gold in the 138-pound class against Trenton's Tom Alexander whom he dumped 15-2 to advance into the semis where he clashed with Redford Union's Al Lowry.

Lowry also didn't post any threat to the Glenn grappler. McLilley strolled off the mats with a 13-7 triumph.

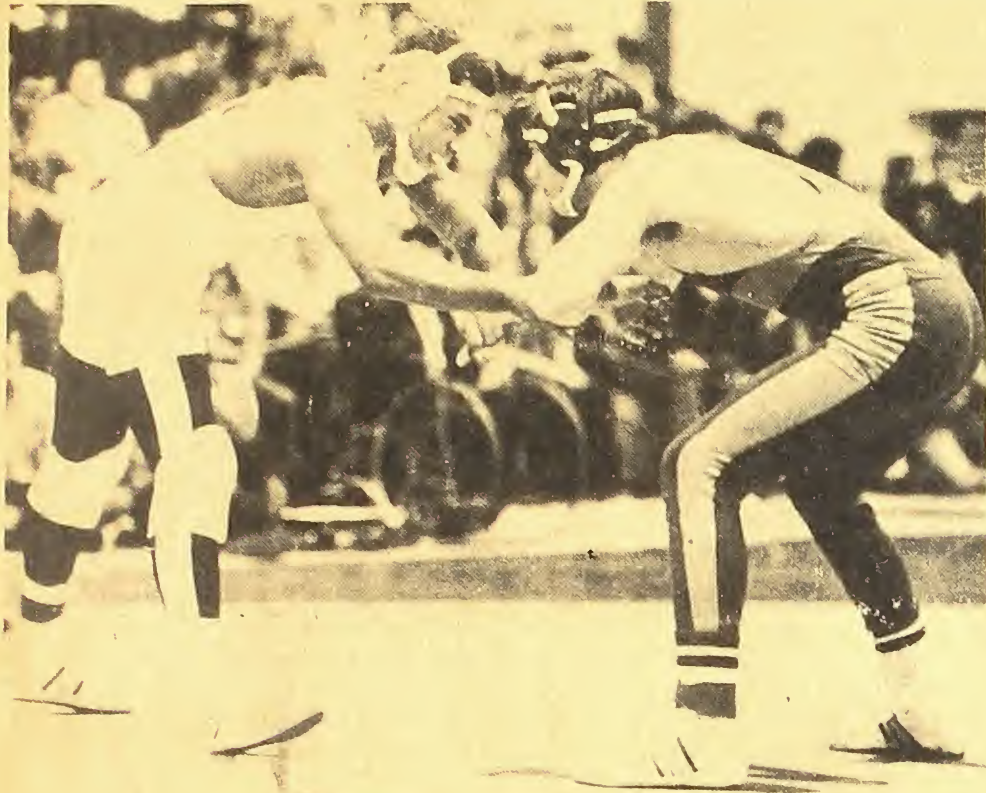

In the finals McLilley locked horns with Ann Arbor Pioneers' Mike Dora and won a convincing 14-8 decision.

West's Byrem also polished off Alexander in the consolation finals, 8-7, to come away with a third place.

Geier, a veteran grappler who is rounding out three years of varsity competition at Franklin, turned back Trenton's Tim Churchill in the finals, 7-1, to win his gold medal.

The Franklin wrestler whipped Tom Gonzales, 8-0, of Adrian, and Melvindale's Rick Browning, 12-0, in the tuneup rounds.

It was almost an All-Area meet for the 145-pound gold where three of the four (Continued on Page 18)

STRUGGLE FOR GOLD - Romulus' Arrington (at left) found himself in the finals of the Class A regionals at Walled Lake Saturday night duelling Ypsilanti's Steve Jentzen for the gold medal. Arrington was nipped by the Ypsi grappler, 5-4, which robbed him of the 167-pound gold medal.

Romulus routs Churchill

Livonia Churchill learned the hard way why Romulus is recognized as one of the better defensive ball clubs in the area this season.

Romulus held their nonleague basketball rivals to three points in the second quarter as the Eagles walloped their visitors 75-47 in the last game of the regular season.

"We have accented defense to these kids because we know that they will get their share of points," said Dave Court who is rounding out his first year as the head coach at Romulus.

Romulus had some difficulty generating its own offense in the first quarter. The Eagles were up by four points, 15-11 and increased their margin to 27-14 at the half.

A third quarter rally, sparked by Ron Kersey and Calvin Harris, however, dispelled any upset hopes that the Livonians may have had.

Romulus was well out in front, 53-29, for three quarters as Harris chipped in 10 and Kersey sank nine points to turn the game into a lopsided affair.

Nate Davis, seeing only a limited amount of action, continued his outstanding play, getting nine baskets and two free throws for 20 points.

Also in doubles were Harris who wound up with 17, teammates Jonnie Long and Kersey who had 13 and 10 points, respectively.

Keith Armstrong was the only Churchill eager to break the double figure barrier. He had eight baskets and five free throws for 21 points.

The victory gave the Eagles an over-all 11-6 record which is the best record for the high school in eight years. They also finished second in the tough Twin Valley Conference, another first for the cagers.

Romulus strolled away from the free throw line with 13 of 23 while Churchill realized nine of 21 attempts.

"We are extremely proud of this team," said Court. "And this is the beginning because next year we will have most of

Belleville's Fant sets fast pace

Western Michigan University freshman Mike Fant of Belleville ran the third best half-mile in Bronco indoor track history as he defeated the 1970 state prep 880 champ Kevin Reabe of Kansas and placed second behind Rich Wholuhuter of Notre Dame with a 1:52.1 clocking.

Fant ranks second to Western Michigan's 1961 All-American and national champion John Bork, who has the only two indoor times better than Mike's performance Feb. 20 at the Central Collegiate Indoor Track Championships.

As a prep at Belleville High Fant earned All-State recognition in the 880 with a 1:54.0 clocking, which ranked second to Reabe's 1:50.9. Reabe placed third in the national prep finals in Sacramento, Cal.

Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Fant of 13150 Edgedale.

Schoolcraft is host

Tankers eye '6' crown

Belleville swim Coach Wam Vicchy has the "Cinderella team" in the Suburban Six Conference this season.

But whether Cinderella will lose its slipper at the conference meet on Thursday, only time will tell.

The Tigers tuned up for their first serious challenge for a conference swim title last week with victories over league rival, Trenton, 56-49 and nonleague rival, Ypsilanti, 57-48.

"We certainly will have a crack at the league title," said Vicchy who is rounding out his first year as the high school's head swim coach. "But definitely Livonia Bentley is the favorite this time."

"We could possibly sneak in, but we are the dark horses, for sure," he said.

Vicchy said the main obstacle of this year's team wasn't quality but quantity. "We lack the depth," said Vicchy. "We have good talent on this club. But where we could win an event, we don't have the swimmers to give us the seconds and thirds one needs to win a meet like this one."

Six teams, including Belleville, Trenton, Allen Park, Trenton, Redford Union and Livonia Bentley will assemble on Thursday at Schoolcraft, the host of the Suburban Six high school. The meet will get underway with the diving competition at 1 p.m. and the preliminaries at 4 p.m.

The finals are scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Belleville will take an 8-2 record into the meet - its best league record ever.

In whipping Trenton, Belleville set two school records, including one in the 200-yard medley relay where Scott and Kim Stone teamed up with Terry Mills and Jeff Fry to produce a 1:49.9, the old mark.

Brad Susterka erased the previous mark for the 100-yard backstroke event when he was clocked in the winning time of 1:02.

Belleville also received winning performances from Kim Stone in the 50-yard freestyle. He pulled in at 24.2 and Barry Susterka who again dominated the diving competition with 228.35 points. Kirk Cullin's 4:21.5 was the best effort in the 400-yard freestyle event.

Jim Ackron tucked the 100-yard breaststroke event into Belleville's win column as he touched in with a 1:09.5.

The Susterka brothers - Brad and Barry - will also compete in the state finals when they are held next week. "We hope to qualify a couple of more boys at the league," said Vicchy. "I know we can get at least two more through."

Belleville, earlier in the week, whipped Ypsilanti, 57-48 in a nonleague dual meet. The victory was the Tigers' 15th in 18 starts.

Michigan State varsity coaches Gus Ganakas in basketball and Dick Fellers in swimming have sons performing for them. Gary Ganakas is a soph guard on the court and Pete Fellers is a junior breastroker.

NO CONTEST - Romulus' Ron Buckley (22) leaps above two Livonia Churchill defenders to tap in this shot in Friday night's nonleague tilt. It was no contest for the Eagles who walloped their Livonia visitors 74-47.

Tigers whip Trenton to finish in 3rd place

Belleville waited until its last league game to look its best in the Suburban Six Conference Friday night. The Tigers, using a balanced attack erased a six point first quarter deficit, to vault past Trenton, 87-76.

The victory gives Coach Allen Gates' Tigers a 5-5 league record and a third place finish.

Trailing most of the opening quarter, Belleville received eight points from Garrade Pettus and Ed Branam in the second quarter which helped the local team overcome a 23-17 deficit and gave them the lead at halftime 45-35.

Belleville never trailed after midway in the second quarter. Also aiding the Tiger cause were Marty Miller and Mike Garland who contributed six points apiece in that second period rally.

"We played one of our better games," said Gates whose team played Adrian at the district tournament Monday. "I hope we can carry this momentum into the playoffs."

Four of Belleville's five starters managed to hit in double figures. Pettus again set the pace with eight baskets and six free throws for 22-the game's high.

Miller's 18 was the next highest while teammates Branam and Garland stuffed in 17 and 15, respectively.

Dave Kline sank 18 points for Trenton's high and he was supported by Mike Selleck who had 15. Mark Bennett and Randy Marks counted 12 points each for Trenton.

Belleville also looked good at the free throw line where the Tigers capitalized upon 21 charities as compared to 14 of 23 by their rivals.

The many blessings of a woman

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

There's this gal that wants a quarter of a million dollars from me — no she's not my wife. And the "funny" thing about it, she's so convincing that if I had it, (the dough) I would probably dish it over to her.

No, I never met this woman.

I know her by voice and name alone.

She's Mrs. Marguerite Lorentson, of Belleville — a hockey "nut". Mrs. Lorentson also "just happens to be" the president of the Southwestern Wayne County Skating and Amateur Hockey Association, (no small names, no sir, just big ones like the association's plans).

Anyway, Mrs. Lorentson happened to catch me in the office Sunday afternoon and since I had skipped my Sunday sermon, she provided me one, on how important it was to get youngsters involved in athletics, namely, hockey.

That her son, Dave, is also a player for the Belleville Tigers and that the "SWCSAHA" was a new organization in dire need of help, namely financial — and also in dire need of team sponsors. "If you have a half-million dollars laying around," she said, "we could use it to build an artificial skating rink. Do you know where our boys have to go to get ice time?" (Haven't I heard that song before?)

Mrs. Lorentson went on to say that she would address the Belleville recreation athletic commission this week about the needs of the organization, that she would solicit their help in building the artificial skating rink.

"Our problem has been in the past that few are cognizant of the fact that we really exist and if you can help us out, we would surely appreciate it," Mrs. Lorentson said.

(Glad to — if it doesn't cost me.)

"And, if you know of someone who would be willing to donate a TV set, or a radio, or a tape recorder or something of value, we are planning a little card party to raise some money to buy uniforms for our teams and we could really use the gifts," she added.

Just like a woman, always wanting something.

.. And I do owe an apology to a sweet-soft-spoken woman who is an avid John Glenn High wrestling championships? You always play up Wayne Memorial.

And when this woman called and said: "How come John Glenn didn't get a big headline after winning the district championships. You always play up Wayne Memorial when they win?"

I blew my stack. (Yep, even the Sports Meridian and sports editors are human.)

I'm sorry about that.

You see, I am very fond of the company of ladies; I like their beauty, I like their delicacy, I like their vivacity, and I like their silence.

And I would like to thank Sam Johnson (Seward's Johnsoniana) for that last paragraph.

WEIGHT PROBLEMS - Belleville's Keith Simons (at right) finds himself tied up with Ann Arbor Pioneer's Maurice Reese in the clash of heavyweights at the regionals. The Belleville grappler was forced to settle for the silver medal when Reese was awarded a 11-5 decision. Simons will have a shot at the state heavyweight championship when the two finalists move on to Calvin College, the site of the Class A state finals.

Wayne Memorial's lone representative at the regionals, Randy Claborn gave an excellent account of himself against his two preliminary rivals, beating Roger Abrams, of North Farmington, 20-3 and Trenton's Casey Robertson on a fall in 1:40.

In the finals, Claborn fell to his 155-pound rival from Ypsilanti, Wendell Lewis, 18-1.

Davis reached the semis with a first round win of Ken Andrews of Dearborn Heights Annapolis, 12-2. He also posted a 7-6 victory over Trenton's Bill Gilbert.

Romulus' Arrington also had to settle for silver when Ypsi's Steve Jentzen nipped him 5-4 in the 162 pound class. However, Arrington

Huron places district cage title on block

Another year and it's a different story for Huron High School's basketball team, the defending Class B champ.

Huron will place its title on the line tomorrow night at Flat Rock when Coach Marty Hotvedt's Chiefs take on St. Francis Cabrini of Allen Park.

"They have a solid ball club and look real good," said Hotvedt whose team lost an overtime decision to Grosse Ile, 71-69, in their last outings.

"We haven't been able to see the Allen Parkers in action because they are in the Catholic League, but I did get to see them once and I can say they can be tough."

However, Cabrini wasn't impressive in their division. They finished in the cellar of the First Division, A-West League with a 1-11 record.

The winners of Tomorrow's game will vault into the championships which will be decided on Friday at 8 p.m.

Also in the Flat Rock district, are the host, Flat Rock, Carlson, and Grosse Ile. Huron won it last year.

Huron proved to Grosse Ile that it will have something to worry about if the two conference rivals should clash in the district finale. The Chiefs forced the islanders into a three-minute over-time before handing over a 71-69 decision.

In that extra period, Huron was without the services of Butch Suemnick who had fouled out in the fourth quarter. However, before he headed toward the bench, Suemnick had accounted for 19 points.

The game was left to be decided in the overtime after the Chiefs blew a five point lead. With Grosse Ile ahead, Glenn Dregansky came up with the equalizer when he followed his shot through and got a rebound at the key and stuffed the box into the basket to tie up the score at 69-all.

Along with Suemnick, Randy Groham also was in double figures as he pumped in 23 points.

Beverly school has 'bee' champions

In the first round of the annual Metropolitan Spelling Bee, the winner of the fifth grade class at Beverly Elementary School is Franchie Sandusky, 5909 Colorado, Romulus.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sandusky. The runner-up is Bridget Johnson, 35007 Avalon, Romulus. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson. The winning word was idle.

The two students are also the school champions; Franchie placed first and Bridget second. The winning word was opportunity. Both are students in Robert Parr's fifth grade class.

Liebler sets diving mark

Ray Leibler, an eighth grade student at South Jr. High School set a meet record in the diving competition at the third annual Erie-Mason Invitational Swimming meet last Saturday.

One week earlier, Leibler had set a league mark in diving competition and his invitational mark of 122.85 topped the old record by more than two full points. The old mark was 120.00.

Liebler had been diving for about two years but is closing out this season in fine style.

Workouts on the uneven parallel bars, balance beams and mats teach body control, both mentally and physically, and result in more graceful carriage for teen-age girls who often feel their movements to be awkward. ### Household poisons threaten kids

While safety packaging is the most promising new approach in keeping the child under five from accidental poisoning with a medication, knowledge about the hazards of common household products eaten by children is also required.

This double-barrel approach to the prevention of childhood poisoning emerged from a report and a scientific exhibit presented at the annual meeting of the American Medical Association by Dr. Alan K. Done and his associates in the department of pediatrics at the University of Utah Medical Center.

Dr. Done, who is also director of the Poison Information and Therapy Center, described his experience with children under five who accidentally poisoned themselves with common household products.

He pointed out that the products most infrequently eaten such as lyes and corrosives caused the highest hospitalization rate, while cosmetics, which were most frequently eaten, caused the least.

Petroleum products — gasoline, naphtha, kerosene, and mineral seal oil — as well as polishes and waxes are infrequently ingested, but have a very high hospitalization rate. Intermediate in terms of "severe poisoning" are pesticides, soaps and cleaners, bleaches, disinfectants, and deodorizers.

Eliminate from Home

That all these products should be kept out of reach of small children goes without saying, Dr. Done noted. "However, the more highly toxic should be kept out of the home or their use surrounded by effective safeguards.

"Experience has shown that liquids or pelleted materials are more likely to be ingested in large quantities than powders, solids, or semi-solids. The method of dispensing or packaging is important," the pediatrician pointed out. "For example, a substance available in aerosol form is usually less likely than a liquid in an ordinary bottle to be ingested in large quantities. A bottle having a small aperture, such as is used with many shaving lotions, perfumes, and toilet waters is likely to be ingested in smaller quantities than the same product in a wide-mouth bottle."

Packaging Methods

On the packaging of drugs, foil or blister packs, or palm-'n-turn caps or bottles which require downward pressure as well as turning, offer greater protections than conventional screw caps.

Dr. Done tested the ability of 123 children between 20 and 40 months of age to open three types of closures, a 'strip pack,' bottles with screw caps, and bottles with other safety closures.

Ninety-three per cent of the youngsters ate most of the 50 small pieces of candy in the conventional screw-top bottle within the 30-minute period allowed. The bottle with the safety closure was opened by sixty-four per cent of the children, but they ate most of the candy. Seventy-eight per cent of the children were able to open at least one unit of the strip pack, but they ate only an average of nine candy pellets in 30 minutes.

The advantage of the strip-pack is two-fold, the pediatrician noted. The effort of opening it is likely to cause the child to lose interest, while the time it takes reduces the number of pellets taken. This allows time for a child to be detected before a potentially harmful dose of a drug is swallowed.

Dr. Done pointed out that more than one out of four accidental child poisonings are caused by aspirin, with adult aspirin being responsible for more than half the hospital admissions for aspirin poisoning. Virtually all the severe cases were due to adult aspirin ingestion. Yet, the physician emphasized, safety measures have been applied only to the children's preparation

Update wall of fireplace

Fireplaces oftentimes lag behind the rest of the house in modernization, so if yours isn't a huge stone fixture you may want to give it a facelift.

Many fireplace walls have too many ins and outs—projecting mantels, recessed bookcases alongside, and cluttered shelves.

Paneling the wall is an easy way to update it. First step is to remove the mantel and frame out the wall with furring strips.

Then nail tongue-and-groove boards over the furring. Vertical grain western hemlock flooring makes a handsome wall, as do ponderosa pine, sugar pine or resawn cedar paneling.

Wood molding may be added as a frame for the brick or marble facing of the opening, mitered for a snug fit against the paneling.

If the space is there, consider adding a built-in cupboard for storing fuel adjacent to the fireplace.

The updated fireplace wall may be sealed and stained, either with a tint or clear stain, simply waxed or left unfinished.

Physical activity is a learning process

Textbooks and classrooms have not yet overshadowed the importance of physical activity as a learning experience for young children. They constantly run, explore, jump and climb, testing the limits of their abilities—and your patience!

All this activity helps your child develop mentally, physically and socially, according to Jeanne Brown, child development specialist for the Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University.

As your child plays, she says, he develops a sense of bodily self-confidence, insulating him from needless fears. He learns what he can and cannot do. As he finds bigger trees to climb, you may be tempted to hold him back. But unless he tackles a dangerous task, he should be allowed to develop a knowledge of his own abilities and limitations.

While exploring the world around him, your child also explores different ways of using his body; such as throwing a ball overhand, then underhand. Preschool children, especially, will do things that demand the use of large muscles—arms and legs—rather than finger muscles which may lack the coordination required by marbles or jacks.

Playing with other children introduces new social experiences, says Mrs. Brown. Group games, like backyard softball, require that decisions be made and conflicts resolved.

The out-of-doors provides an outlet for feelings as well as energy. A fast climb on the jungle gym or a round of basketball is a more acceptable channel for anger and frustration than punching a little sister.

Through physical play, your child develops concepts such as shape and strength. He learns a round ball won't do what a square block will.

Daytona '500' draws Kosin fans

FIVE KOSINS — Chet, Mary, Mark and Mike of Elwell Road, and Mrs. Chester Kosin (Chet's mother from Inkster) left Metro Airport Friday evening, February 12, for Daytona Beach, Florida to attend the 13th Annual Daytona '500' stock car race. Having reserved the penthouse on Delta's 747, the group enjoyed dinner served by their own private stewardess.

Saturday's weather was cold and extremely windy for the 'Permatex 300' race but on Sunday the Florida sun favored the visitors with its warmth.

Chet, Mark and Mike returned home Sunday night while Mary stayed on to drive Mrs. Kosin to Fort Meyers to view her new homestead at Seven Lakes which will be completed in April. Along the way they visited Walt Disney World Preview Center near Orlando and made a stop at a shell factory near Fort Meyers.

Mary returned Tuesday evening with Mrs. Kosin remaining to visit friends.

Family get-together marks anniversary

MR. AND MRS. Carl Phelps, Jr. and children of Sumpter Road and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Enzenauer and children of Bemis Road were in Detroit Sunday to attend the 55th wedding anniversary mass honoring Julie's and Cindy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pachy, at Holy Cross Catholic Church.

Following the service, a family get-together was enjoyed at the Dearborn home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moss. Also attending were former Sumpterites, Cliff and Mary Prain of Gibraltar and James and Barbara Moss and sons of Detroit.

London on calendar for 10th anniversary

BACK IN BELLEVILLE after nearly a month's absence, John and Marge Roberts of Lake Pointe Pass have quite a travel log to remind them of their 10th wedding anniversary.

Exiting January 28, they motored to Washington, D.C. with a stop enroute to see John's mother in Cleveland. For the week-end they were guests of Marge's brother-in-law and wife, the Robert Vinsons, in Rockville, Maryland.

Then on the date of their wedding a decade back, January 31, the couple boarded their 747 for a flight to London.

Their week-long stay was highlighted by 'doing the theater' — seeing four shows including 'Fiddler on the Roof', 'How the Other Half Loves', 'Mouse Trap' which has been playing the same theater for the past 19 years, and an old-time minstrel show. They also took in Madam Tussaud's Wax Museum and a nearby planetarium before returning to home soil.

Taking to the road again they traveled down the Atlantic coast to Kill Devil, N.C. Hills, the site of the Wright Brothers first flight and visited the museum there. Stopping at Havelock, N.C. they spent two days catching up on the progress of their granddaughter, Tytti Liisa, and her mom and dad, Vicki and Mike Barnett.

Continuing on their way they especially enjoyed Charleston, S.C. where they toured two plantations, one including acres of gardens with some 35,000 azalea plants, and the other boasting of the first camellia bushes to be brought over from England 400 years ago.

Savannah, Ga., the Okefenokee Swamps, St. Augustine, and Marineland were also noted in their log as they headed for Cape Kennedy where they saw Apollo 15 being tested.

Swinging back towards home they stopped in Athens, Ala. for a four-day visit with Marge's folks, the Bert Smiths, and to check on Mr. S. who was convalescing from recent surgery.

The final lap of their anniversary trip included touring the new museum in Huntsville, Ala. and stopping in Neil Armstrong's hometown, Wapakoneta, Ohio.

Richard's cake has eight candles

HAPPY BIRTHDAYS were in order Saturday, February 20, as Richard Stull, Jr. marked his eighth birth date with some 26 young friends and relatives.

His parents, the senior Richard Stulls of Savage Road, entertained the younger set with a number of games and then brought out the cake, ice cream, chips, and punch. Helping serve the clown cake was the honoree's aunt and Godmother, Bobbie Checkosky of Belleville, with his grandmother, Mrs. Eve Checkosky giving a hand with the gifts.

In on the fun were Richard's three sisters, Michelle, Debra and Cathy; his cousins from Maybee, Linda, Harold and Jennifer Renna; Sheryl Karain of Belleville; neighbors, Sara and Neal Robson; and his second grade friends from St Anthony's.

Janet's shower tagged 'miscellaneous'

JANET BASNAW, who became the bride of Brien Boone this past Saturday, was guest of honor at a Valentine's Day shower held at the home of her sister, Diane McDaniel of Mom's Drive. Diane and her co-hostesses, all attendants in the wedding, tagged the event 'miscellaneous' and included bingo and other games as the afternoon entertainment.

Using the red and pink color scheme of the bridal party, they decorated with streamers and wedding bells and a parasol over the gift table.

A bride doll cake, which Diane had made and decorated, centered the buffet table as guests, 24 in all, enjoyed a chicken dinner. Delaine Bolay and Brenda Brown of Ypsilanti and Judy Crawford and Martha Boone assisted.

The wedding took place February 27 at the Grace Baptist Church with a reception following at the Romulus VFW Hall.

Here 'n there around the town

A FORMER RESIDENT of Belleville, Robert Young, marked his 90th birthday February 24 at his home, 2022 23rd St., Detroit. Mr. Young, a widower and the brother of Beryl Young of Savage Road and Ernest Young of E. Columbia Avenue, is a graduate of Belleville High School.

WITH TWO important dates occurring back-to-back on the calendar at the A.R. Liebler home, they've gotten so they combine the two into one special occasion. Son, Ray, marks his birthday February 17 with Lieb and Gwen having their wedding anniversary the next day. Since last year's celebration was such a success, they did a re-run of the Italian-style dinner (complete with red and white checked table cloths, wine-bottle candles, etc.) and asked the Marshall Hopes, the Bert Smith family and Robin Pishnik to join them in toasting the dual event.

Beef up rice

Beef kabobs or pork chops deserve to be accompanied with a special rice. Just pop a cube of beef bouillon in the boiling water when cooking rice or use diluted canned bouillon. The soup seasons the rice as well as giving it a gourmet appearance.

Make over a leftover for an elegant entree by arranging hot cooked pork slices on seasoned rice or noodles. Top with a heated sauce of cream of mushroom soup slightly diluted with rose or white wine.

CRUNCHY 'N CRISPY— Lunch in the office becomes something special when dessert is homemade cookies. Corn flakes and flaked coconut are used to make crisp, golden brown treats. Puffy, lightly-browned kisses are easy as one, two, three when made with corn flakes and egg whites.

'Lunch in' cookies that are stand-outs

Working gals who want to celebrate or arrange for a bit of confidential dialogue often resort to the precious lunch hour. This can sometimes present problems—where to go, get served, have some degree of privacy, all within an affordable price.

Here's a solution. Have lunch in. One gal brings the sandwiches or fare for the main course and the other the dessert. The dessert can be simple yet special. Easy to make cookies will help conclude the meal on a sweet note. Crunchy Coconut Cookies made with Post Toasties Corn Flakes, flaked coconut, and brown sugar are crisp golden brown rounds. Corn Flake Kisses, puffy mounds of corn flakes, egg whites, sugar, and flavoring are baked until they are tinged with a light brown glow.

Bring enough, since few can resist following the cookie-crumbs trail. Once lunch is over, your co-workers will be delighted with any remaining cookies as a tasty afternoon snack that will recharge dwindling energy.

Crunchy Coconut Cookies

- 1 cup unsifted all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup butter or shortening
- 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1 egg
- 1-1 1/2 cups (about) flaked coconut
- 1-1 1/2 cups Post Toasties Corn Flakes
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Mix flour with baking powder, soda, and salt. Cream butter. Gradually add sugars; cream until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Add flour mixture, coconut, cereal, and vanilla. Beat until well blended. Shape into small balls and place on ungreased baking sheets. Press down with fork. Bake at 350 degrees for 12 minutes, or until golden brown. Makes 3 dozen cookies.

Corn Flake Kisses

- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 egg whites
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 3 cups Post Toasties Corn Flakes

Or use almond extract or grated orange rind.

Add salt to egg whites and beat until foamy throughout. Gradually add sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Continue beating until mixture will form stiff shiny peaks. Add vanilla. Fold in cereal. Drop mixture from teaspoon onto greased baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for about 15 minutes, or until lightly browned. Makes about 3 dozen cookies.

Military wedding planned

Peter and Rita Munoz of Detroit and Ecorse announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucille S. Munoz, to Randy L. White.

The bride-elect, who resides at 13241 Whitcomb, Detroit, is an employee of the Atlantic and Pacific Company.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Collins of 37639 Walnut, Romulus.

A military wedding in the spring is being planned.

Firm, medium oranges best

Medium size oranges are usually the best value for the money because they have the most orange and juice in proportion to peel, says Ada Shinabarger, Michigan State University consumer marketing information agent.

With a record crop coming to market, consumers can choose from an ample supply. Pick firm, heavy types with bright, fresh and reasonably smooth skins. Miss Shinabarger advises. Rough texture indicates abnormally thick skin and less flesh. Dull, dry skin and spongy texture are signs of aging and deteriorated eating quality, she says.

Oranges that look slightly puffy and almost pointed at the stem end have wasteful amounts of peel, Miss Shinabarger says. Some blemishes on orange peels like russeting (a brownish, roughened area) and a little green don't matter. Russeting is only skin deep and has nothing to do with eating quality. A hint of green is unimportant, since oranges are never picked until sugar content is high enough to rate "ripe."

When buying tangerines, select those with deep yellow or orange color and bright luster. Avoid tangerines with puffy skins. These have air space between peel and pulp and are likely to be less than tasty and somewhat woody in texture.

Very pale yellow or greenish tangerines are probably immature. Don't confuse these with highly colored fruit having small green areas. These are fully mature fruit and have a good flavor.

LAYOUT: The layout of proposed streets shall provide for the continuation of existing streets in surrounding areas and or shall conform to a plan for the neighborhood approved by the Township Planning Commission in cases where topographical or other conditions preclude the continuation of existing streets. In general, such streets shall be of a width as great as that of the street so extended. Due consideration shall be given to traffic safety. Minor residential streets shall be laid out as to discourage their use by through traffic. Due consideration shall also be given by the subdivider to the attractiveness of the street layout in order to obtain the maximum livability and amenity of the subdivision. consideration shall also be given to the proposed use of the subdivision and the proper allowance made in industrial subdivisions for potential and existing railroad right-of-way as conditions will permit. An intersection occurring on a street which a railroad track shall not be less than four hundred (400) feet from the nearest railroad right-of-way. Greater distances may be required if it is deemed necessary for distances may be required if it is deemed necessary for safety, approach gradients or future grade separations.

2. MAJOR STREETS: Where the subdivision abuts or contains an existing or proposed major street, the Township Planning Commission may, at its discretion, require the construction of marginal access streets, double frontage of lots with provision of a screen planting contained in a no-access reservation along the rear property lines, deep lots with rear-service alleys, or other treatment which the said Commission considers essential to adequate protection of residential lots and to separation of through and local traffic.

3. PRIVATE STREETS AND ALLEYS: Private streets and alleys shall not be permitted, but rather all streets and alleys shall be dedicated to the Public.

4. ACCESS TO PROPERTY: Each residential lot within a subdivision shall be provided with a satisfactory means of access. Wherever there already exists a dedicated and recorded half-street or half-alley on adjoining plat, the other half shall be dedicated on the proposed plat to make the street or alley complete. A one (1) foot reserve may be required to be placed between a half-street and the subdivision boundaries. This reserve shall be deeded in fee simple to the Township for future street purposes.

A one (1) foot reserve may be required to be placed at the end of a dead-end street which terminates at subdivision boundaries. This reserve shall be deeded in fee simple to the Township for future street purposes.

7. BUSINESS OR COMMERCIAL LOTS: No lot or parcel classified as business or commercial shall be platted that is less than fifty (50) feet in width. RESTRICTIONS: Wherever property is subdivided with the intention that it shall have a use different than that designated in the Zoning Ordinance, such use shall be stated in an application for an amendment to the Zoning Ordinance or in a separate statement filed with the Planning Commission. Conformance with the objectives of the Comprehensive Development Plan shall be required so as to insure general uniformity of land uses within blocks and neighborhoods.

3. CONFORMANCE WITH ZONING ORDINANCE: Property use and area restrictions must be in accordance with the Zoning Ordinance.

4. BUSINESS AND COMMERCIAL LOTS: Business or Commercial lots, when platted, shall bear a reasonable relation in number to the probable number of families constituting the purchasing power of the surrounding tributary area. The Planning Commission shall recommend the location of business and commercial lots in accordance with the Comprehensive Plan and the Zoning Ordinance.

5. COMMERCIAL OR INDUSTRIAL MODIFICATION: These subdivision design standards may be modified in accordance with Article V in the case of subdivision specifically for commercial or industrial development, including shopping districts, wholesaling areas, and planned industrial districts. In all cases, however, adequate provision shall be made for off-street parking and loading areas as well as for traffic circulations.

6. SUBJECT TO FLOODING : Any areas within the proposed plat which are subject to flooding, inundation by storm water, or within the flood plain of a river, stream, creek or lake, or have inadequate drainage shall not be platted for any use so as to increase danger to life, health or property. If the Township Board determines that a flood problem does exist, then it shall reject all or part of the proposed plat lying with the flood plain or area subject to flooding. Areas of land lying within a flood plain shall require compliance with the Subdivision Control Act and review by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. The proprietor may show by engineering site plans that a change in the topography will eliminate flooding and shall demonstrate that any planned topographical change will not aggravate the flood hazard beyond the limits of the plat.

7. OPEN SPACES. In the design of the plat, thorough and equitable consideration shall be given by the subdivider and the Planning Commission to the provision of suitable sites for recreational, school and other public purposes. When a proposed park, playground, school or other public use shown on the Comprehensive Development Plan is located in whole or in part within a subdivision, a suitable area for this purpose may be dedicated to the public purchase. If within two (2) years of plat recording, the purchase is not agreed on, the reservation may be cancelled or shall automatically cease to exist.

8. PROTECTION OF NATURAL FEATURES: Due regard shall be shown for all natural features, such as large trees, exceptionally fine groves of trees, water courses, scenic points, historic spots, and similar community assets, which, if preserved, will add attractiveness and values to the subdivision.

Section 406. REQUIRED IMPROVEMENTS: In order to provide healthful, clean and desirable living conditions, the subdivider shall be entirely responsible for installing the following site improvements, or shall furnish a surety bond acceptable to the Township Board to the Township, sufficient to permit the completion of all contemplated improvements, before a plat shall be accepted by the Township.

1. STREET PAVEMENT AND STORM DRAINAGE: Those subdivisions, wherein the majority of lots are under one hundred and fifty (150) feet in width, shall have concrete paved streets and intersections with curb and gutter. In addition, all such streets shall have enclosed storm drainage sewers. Those subdivisions where in at least three quarters of the lots have a width of one hundred and fifty (150) feet or more, shall have streets and intersections of bituminous type pavement surfacing with a two-inch cap on stone base, and may have open ditches to accommodate storm drainage. All enclosed storm sewers or open ditches shall be approved by the Wayne County Road Commission and/or County Drain Commission. All such improvements shall be provided by the subdivider.

2. SANITARY SEWERAGE SYSTEM: Where provided, the location and design of all trunk line and lateral sanitary sewers and any other necessary appurtenances such as pumping stations shall be first approved by the Township Engineer and all applicable reviewing agencies, and all work shall be carried out under the supervision of the Township Engineer.

3. WATER SYSTEM: Where provided, the location and design of water mains with house connections and the installation of fire huddrants, and any other necessary appurtenances shall be first approved by the Township Engineer and all applicable reviewing agencies as to suitability, and all work shall be carried out under the direction of the Township Engineer.

4. SIDEWALKS: Sidewalks shall be provided along all streets where lot widths are less than 150 feet or less and at any other location where the Township Board shall determine that sidewalks are necessary for public safety or convenience. Sidewalks shall not be less than five (5) feet in width and four (4) inches in thickness and shall be first approved by the Township Engineer and all applicable reviewing agencies as to suitability, and all work shall be carried out under the direction of said Township Engineer.

5. CURBS AND GUTTERS: Curbs and gutters shall be required on all neighborhood access streets and minor streets and shall be constructed in accordance with standards and specifications adopted by the Wayne County Road Commission.

6. INSTALLATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES: Public Utilities and driveways shall be located in accordance with the rules of the Wayne County Road Commission. The underground work for utilities shall be stubbed to the property line. All public utilities in a subdivision shall be underground.

7. DRIVEWAYS: All subdivision driveways shall be solid approach from property line to front line of building. Such driveways shall also be at least nine (9) feet in width and, if concrete, shall have expansion strips placed at twelve (12) feet intervals.

8. SIDEWALKS AND CROSSWALKS: Sidewalks shall be required on both sides of the street. Where the average width of lots, as measured at the street frontage line or at the building setback line, is over one hundred and fifty (150) feet, sidewalks on one side may be required by the Township.

Crosswalks, when required by the Township, shall have easements at least ten (10) feet in width and include a paved walk at least five (5) feet in width, located generally along the centerline of the easement, dedicated as a public pedestrian walkway.

Sidewalks and crosswalks shall be constructed in accordance with the requirements of the County Road Commission and Section 406 (4) of this Ordinance.

9. STREET NAME SIGNS: Street name signs shall be installed in the appropriate locations at each street intersection in accordance with the requirements of the County Road Commission.

10. STREET TREES: Street trees of a variety and size in accordance with the following standards shall be planted between the sidewalks and property line:

(a) Trees shall be spaced alternately on eachside of the street.

(b) Trees shall be spaced at regular intervals of 45 to 60 feet (depending on type of tree and its maximum growth) without regard to property lines.

(c) Trees for an entire block shall be planted at the same time.

(d) All trees shall be the same kind on a street. The Planning Commission may allow different varieties and sizes of trees on the same block to achieve a special effect.

(e) The calibre of a tree shall be no less than one and a half (1½) inches in size.

11. STREET LIGHTING: Street lighting shall be required for all streets within those subdivisions containing lots under one hundred and fifty (150) feet in width. The illuminated pattern must overlap so that the entire street receives the amount of illumination necessary to insure safe and adequate pedestrian and vehicular lighting conditions. Other design aspects, such as spacing of poles, height of standards, type of lighting, distribution of the illumination pattern, intensity of illumination, etc., must receive prior approval from the Township Engineer.

Section 407. GUARANTEE OF COMPLETION OF IMPROVEMENTS REQUIRED BY THE TOWNSHIP:

1. FINANCIAL GUARANTEE ARRANGEMENTS, EXCEPTIONS: In lieu of the actual installation of required public improvements, the Township Board on recommendation of the Planning Commission may permit the subdivider to provide a financial guarantee of performance in one or a combination of the requirements of the County Road Commission, County Drain Commissioner or any other agency responsible for the administration, operation and maintenance of the applicable public improvement. The Planning Commission may recommend and the Township Board may waive financial guarantees of performance under this Ordinance for sidewalks, street lights, or street trees. In case these improvements are specified, completion shall be required prior to the issuance of occupancy permits.

(a) Performance or Surety Bond:

(1) Accrual: The bond shall accrue to the Township, covering construction, operation and maintenance of the specific public improvement.

(2) Amount: The bond shall be in an amount equal to the total estimated cost for completing construction of the specific public improvement, including contingencies, as estimated by the Township Board.

(3) Term Length: The term length in which the bond is in force shall be for a period to be specified by the Township Board for the specific public improvement.

(4) Bonding or Surety Company: The bond shall be with a surety company authorized to do business in the State of Michigan, acceptable to the Township Board.

(5) The escrow agreement shall be drawn and furnished by the Township Board.

(b) Cash Deposit, Certified Check, Negotiable Bond, or Irrevocable Bank Letter of Credit:

(1) Treasurer, Escrow Agent or Trust Company: A cash deposit, certified check, negotiable bond, or an irrevocable bank letter of credit, such surety acceptable by the Township Board, shall accrue to the Township. These deposits shall be made with the Township Treasurer, or deposited with a responsible escrow agent, or trust company, subject to the approval of the Township Board.

(2) Dollar Value: The dollar value of the cash deposit, certified check, negotiable bond, or an irrevocable bank letter of credit, shall be equal to the total estimated cost of construction of the specific public improvement including contingencies, as estimated by the Township Board.

(3) Escrow Time: The escrow time for the cash deposit, certified check, negotiable bond, or irrevocable bank letter of credit, shall be for a period to be specified by the Township Board.

(4) Progressive Payment: In the case of cash deposits or certified checks, an agreement between the Township and the subdivider may provide for progressive payment out of the cash deposit or reduction of the certified check, negotiable bond or irrevocable bank letter of credit, to the extent of the cost of the completed portion of the public improvement, in accordance with a previously entered into agreement.

Section 408. CONDITION OF TOWNSHIP APPROVAL OF FINAL PLAT—FINANCIAL GUARANTEES: With respect to financial guarantees, the approval of all final subdivision plats shall be conditioned on the accomplishment of one of the following:

(a) The construction of improvements required by this Ordinance shall have been completed by the subdivider and approved by the Township Board.

(b) Surety acceptable to the Township shall have been filed in the form of a cash deposit, certified check, negotiable bond, irrevocable bank letter of credit or surety bond.

1. SPECIAL AGREEMENTS: A special agreement shall be entered into between the subdivider and the Township Board where street trees and street lights have been required by the Township Board.

2. INSPECTION OF PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS UNDER CONSTRUCTION: Before approving a final plat and construction plans and specifications for public improvements, an agreement between the subdivider and the Township Board shall be made to provide for checking or inspecting the construction and its conformity to the submitted plans.

3. PENALTY IN CASE OF FAILURE TO COMPLETE THE CONSTRUCTION OF A PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT: In the event the subdivider shall, in any case, fail to complete such work within such period of time as required by the conditions of the guarantee for the completion of public improvements, it shall be the responsibility of the Township Board to proceed to have such work completed. In order to accomplish this, the Township Board shall reimburse itself for the cost and expense thereof by appropriating the cash deposit, certified check, irrevocable bank letter of credit, or negotiable bond which the subdivider may have deposited in lieu of a surety bond, or may take such steps as may be necessary to require performance by the bonding or surety company, and as included in a written agreement between the Township Board and the subdivider.

ARTICLE V—VARIANCES

Section 500. GENERAL: The Township Planning Commission may recommend to the Township Board a variance from the provisions of this Ordinance on a finding that undue hardship may result from strict compliance with specific provisions or requirements of the Ordinance or that application of such provision or requirement is impracticable. The Planning Commission shall only recommend variances that it deems necessary to or desirable for the public interest. In making its findings, as required herein below, the Planning Commission shall take into account the nature of the proposed use of land and the existing use of land in the vicinity, the number of persons to reside or work in the proposed subdivision, and the probable effect of the proposed subdivision upon traffic conditions in the vicinity. No variance shall be recommended unless the Planning Commission finds after a public hearing:

1. That there are such special circumstances or conditions affecting said property that the strict application of the provisions of this Ordinance would clearly be impracticable or unreasonable. In such cases the subdivider shall first state his reasons in writing as to the specific provision or requirement involved and submit them to the Planning Commission.

2. That the granting of the specified variance will not be detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to other property in the area in which said property is situated.

3. That such variance will not violate the provisions of the State Subdivision Control Act.

4. The Planning Commission shall include its findings and the specific reasons therefor in its report of recommendations to the Township Board and shall also record its reasons and actions in its minutes.

5. That such variance will not have the effect of nullifying the interest and purpose of this Ordinance and the Comprehensive Development Plan of this Township.

Section 501. TOPOGRAPHICAL—PHYSICAL LIMITATION VARIANCE: Where in the case of a particular proposed subdivision, it can be shown that strict compliance with the requirements of this Ordinance would result in extraordinary hardship to the subdivider because of unusual topography, other physical conditions, or other such conditions which are not self-inflicted, or that these conditions would result in inhibiting the achievement of the objectives of this Ordinance, the Planning Commission may recommend to the Township Board that variance modification or a waiver of these requirements be granted.

ARTICLE VI FEES

Section 600. SCHEDULE OF FEES: The schedule of fees for subdivision plats shall be as follows:

1. APPLICATION FEES: Preliminary and Final Plat review fees, planning fees, engineering fees, attorney fees, inspection fees and other applicable development charges shall be paid by the proprietor as may be provided for as follows, or by other ordinances of the Township. The proprietor shall, upon first submission of a Preliminary Plat pay to the Township Clerk the sum of $250.00 plus $2.00 per lot. There shall be no further charges for Preliminary or Final Plat review. In the event the proprietor must resubmit his plat for any reason, there shall be an additional charge of 50 per cent of original fee.

2. ENGINEERING REVIEW FEES: Such fees shall be established by resolution of the Township Board.

ARTICLE VII PENALTY

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Ordinance, whether such person be the owner or agent of the owner of the property, shall be fined not to exceed the sum of one hundred ($100.00) dollars, and the cost of the prosecution or by imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, or both, at the discretion of the court. Each day such violation shall exist shall constitute a separate offense. Furthermore, all persons shall be subject to the penalties set forth in Section 264 of the State Subdivision Control Act, Act 288, Public Acts, 1967, as amended.

ARTICLE VIII VALIDITY

Should any section, clause or provision of this Ordinance be declared by the courts to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of these Regulations as a whole, or any part thereof, other than the part so declared to be invalid.

ARTICLE IX EFFECTIVE DATE

General tendencies: During the daylight hours most everyone is likely to be restless, nervous, to break promises and to look for conditions to complain about, so keep cheerful and avoid any pitfalls. However, the evening brings a surprise benefit through the kind action of another person that lightens loads and brings a better outlook.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Driving with utmost care as well as thinking well before you speak is wise today. An associate gives the support you want. Forget idea about going off on a tangent. Remain practical.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Although you might have made an error where money is concerned, this could act to your benefit indirectly. Don't worry about it. Plan a way to cut down on present expenses.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Obey every regulation that applies to you or you could get in trouble with bigwigs. Relax tonight with good friends. Keep promises meticulously or you could raise the anger of others.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) Don't be too upset because you have to work and not be able to get out for amusement, since you could be disappointed, anyway. In the eveing go out with friends and have fun.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) Keep quiet when an altercation starts between a good friend and an advisor. You find all works out just fine. Personal aims do not work out well during day, but in evening everything is fine. Show wisdom of waiting.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Being exact in following through with ideas of associates and bigwigs brings fine results now. Handle a public matter today. Show that you have very fine talent, tact.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Forget anything of a fleeting nature and get right down to business today so that later you can delve into the other interests that fascinate you. New contact has worthless advice during day, but tonight it is very good. Listen then.

PASS IT ON by L.M. Boyd

The formal wedding announcement is long established. But what about the formal divorce announcement? A wife about to shed her gentleman friend should be allowed to make it known she is at liberty again. That's the contention of some. Why should this girl, they ask, sit around in her undergrowth waiting for the jungle drums to carry the word? Her revised status, they contend, ought to be declared on embossed cards between tissues. Truly, there's a scatter of agreed citizens pushing this notion now. So you want to be a disc jockey, young fellow? All right, but it's tough work. Nationwide the disk jockeys only live an average of 58.8 years... Correspondents say a bumper sticker seen here and there around London now reads: "I am not afraid of the police, because I have done nothing wrong."... You know those perfumes the cosmetics boys put out for men? Just about 75 per cent of them are bought by women. For men, no doubt. But the girls lay out the money, nonetheless.

Customer service - Q. "Where does cleaning the stove rank on that list of chores wives hate most?" A. That's No. 2 No. 1 is still ironing. No. 3 scrubbing floors. No. 4 cleaning out closets. No. 5 washing windows... Q. "Wasn't there an enormous baby boom in New York City in the July that followed that vast blackout all over the Northeast on Nov. 9, 1965?" A. Nothing to it. Turns out that widely circulated report was hogwash... Q. "Ever seen an American Indian with a beard?" A. Never have. But some Indians grow beards. Sparse ones, usually. If you see an Indian with a big bushy set of whiskers, you've found yourself a much-admired man among his fellows.

Music teachers are not generally considered the best credit risks. So says a bank loan officer. He also looks twice, he says, at loan applications from laundry workers, writers and taxicab drivers. Exceptions abound, certainly... A young lady doing post-graduate work in Denver says her studies show rock-and-roll music kills some house plants. Only the hardies foliage can survive in a discotheque, she contends. Why remains unclear.

A girl called Leslie tends to be boyish and gossipy. That's not our Name Game man's theory. It's the opinion of numerous women in Great Britain. They were questioned on the matter by one Joseph M. Wober. He's a researcher at England's University of Bristol. They also said an Elizabeth seems to be likeable and intelligent, a Doris is usually excellent in the kitchen although she fights overweight, a Susan genrally gets what she wants because of a stubborn streak, and a Jane almsot invariably winds up running the show, however subtly.

What poet used the title "If"? Not just Rudyard Kipling, Emily Dickinson, John Masfield and several dozen others did, too... Understand the 49-star U.S. flags turned out between January and August of 1959 have become valuable collectors items... Why is it Tuesday is that day of the week when most divorces are granted? Mysterious.

Huron anti-smoking program to be extensive

An intensified smoking and health program, co-sponsored by three voluntary health agencies, has been adopted by the Huron School District as part of its curriculum.

The program, aimed at students at all levels from kindergarten through 12th grade, also includes adult education.

It will get underway today, when school assemblies, sponsored by the student councils, are held for junior and senior high schoolers and faculty members.

Co-sponsored by American Cancer Society, Wayne County unit, Michigan Heart Association, Southeastern Region, and the Tuberculosis and Health Society of Wayne County, the program has the approved support of the Huron School District Board of Education, management and faculty of the various schools in the district, the curriculum committee, the student council from the junior and senior high schools and counselors from the elementary schools.

The programs planned for the junior and senior high schools are identical but will be kept separate.

The assembly programs feature films and speakers. Among the films are six one-minute anti-smoking messages seen on television during the past year, and portions of the films "Countdown" and "Point of View." "Countdown" shows the removal of a human lung that has proven to be cancerous. "Point of View" depicts a man's addiction to cigarettes.

Guest speakers on each program will be a laryngectomee who will discuss the problems of oral cancer and the limitations placed on one's life after undergoing removal of the larynx (voice box), an emphysema patient who will give his own personal story on cigarette smoking; and a physician who will answer medical questions relating to cigarette smoking and health.

The student council will then form a reaction panel representing the schools and will question and discuss what the students in the school can do as a project in the fight against the health hazards of cigarette smoking.

Each student attending the assembly programs will be handed a questionnaire upon leaving the assembly and asked to complete it and place the questionnaire into boxes which will be provided by the student council at all school exits.

No member of the faculty other than the principal will see the questionnaires and they will be handed directly to the voluntary health agencies for compilation and recommendations.

It is the desire and wish of both the school district student councils and voluntary health agencies that those students who are smoking wish to participate in specially designed student smoking withdrawal clinics to help them kick the habit before they become addicted to cigarettes.

Those students who do not smoke or are not attending the student smoking withdrawal clinic will be asked to participate in the student council's anti-smoking projects and in the school district's Science Health Fair with special emphasis placed on the health hazards of cigarette smoking.

The program for the elementary schools and kindergarten (pupils through the 5th grade) will begin on Thursday, March 18 when Rancher Glen, Michigan's Christmas Seal cowboy, will give four performances.

Rancher Glen's performances will be the first of five phases of the elementary and kindergarten program. Each phase will be two weeks apart.

The second phase is in two parts. First, the voluntary health agencies will train faculty members in the elementary schools to use and manipulate the TB and Health Society's two smoking mannequins, Nick and Tina. Both mannequins represent and demonstrate smoking hazards to the lungs. Secondly, the teachers will then use the mannequins in their respective classrooms to demonstrate to the students the effects on the lungs after smoking cigarettes.

The third phase will be the showing of a film by the American Cancer Society entitled: "The Huffy, Puffy Dragon." It is a story about a legendary dragon that refused to smoke.

The fourth phase will be talks by physicians on the dangers of cigarette smoking. Speakers will be supplied by the Michigan Heart Association.

The final phase of the elementary school program will involve students drawing or painting posters depicting the hazards of smoking as seen through the eyes of a child.

Adult education will consist of smoking withdrawal clinics and health education materials supplied by the school district and the voluntary health agencies involved in the program.

Neighboring school districts are watching the program closely to see if it can be implemented into their own curriculum. Flat Rock and Garden City school districts are two that have shown more than normal interest. The voluntary health organizations have already successfully conducted a smoking withdrawal clinic as part of adult education in the Garden City schools.

Any school wishing to undertake a smoking and health program should contact Elwyn D. Batchelor, TB & Health Society, 961-1697. Batchelor conducted the first successful student smoking withdrawal clinic in the U.S. He received awards from the State of Pennsylvania and from the National Council on Smoking and Health.

'Strongest man' will lift for youth group

Paul Anderson, the "World's Strongest Man," will appear Saturday, Mar. 13, at Pioneer High School in Ann Arbor.

Anderson began weightlifting while attending Furman University, where after a few weeks of training, he broke weight lifting records that had stood for over 30 years.

With these first efforts, he launched a weightlifting career that took him to national, world and Olympic titles.

He has toured the world as a good will ambassador for our State Department and lifted in command performances for heads of state. He has lifted more weight in one single attempt than anyone in the history of the world, 6,270 lbs. in the back lift.

The Russian people were so impressed with this world record breaking tour of their country in 1955 that they called him a wonder of nature.

The Paul Anderson Youth Home, Inc. located in Vidalia, Georgia is operated by Paul and his wife, Glenda, in an effort to develop good citizens through Spiritual Guidance, Education and Physical Fitness.

Paul Anderson is being sponsored by Huron Valley Youth for Christ. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free.

Increase to solidify post office financing

Belleville Postmaster Ray J. O'Neil said Monday that the proposed new postal rate increases will place the nation's postal system on a sound financial basis and shift more of the costs from taxpayers generally to those who use the mails the most.

He explained that recent postal service proposals submitted Feb. 1 to the Postal Rate Commission would yield additional revenues of $1.45 billion during fiscal year 1972, starting July 1, 1971.

The proposals call for increases in virtually all mail categories except parcel post. Postmaster O'Neil pointed out that higher rates had been sought by the Post Office Department under both the current and previous administrations, but no action was taken.

In addition to the long-standing postal service proposal for a 2-cent boost for letters from six to eight cents, advertising mail would be increased to a minimum of five cents per piece, plus additional increases for heavier weights.

Substantial increases also are proposed for magazines, newspapers and other categories of second-class mail O'Neil said. These rather steep increases will be phased in over five years to soften the impact on the mailers.

Other highlights of the proposal:

Airmail rates would go up a penny, from 10 to 11 cents, and airmail cards, from eight to nine cents each. Regular postal cards would be increased from five to seven cents each.

Concerning "Priority Mail" — packages weighing more than 12 ounces and receiving first-class treatment—higher rates are proposed only for parcels weighing less than five pounds. For a five-pound priority mail package sent across the U.S., the rates would remain $4.08 under the proposal. However, for a one-pound package, an increase of from 80 cents to $1 is proposed.

In third-class, the rates for single pieces—often a circular or small parcel—would rise to eight cents for the first two ounces and the fee for each additional ounce would be raised from two to four cents under the permanent-rate proposal.

Special delivery and registered mail fees would both be increased. The minimum fee for a special delivery letter would rise from 45 to 60 cents, while the rate for registered mail valued up to $100 would be increased from 80 to 95 cents under the proposal. There would be proportionate hikes in the fees for shipments registered at higher values.

When the proposed domestic changes go into effect, similar increases in letter mail rates to Canada and Mexico are planned.

The total yield under the proposal, when fully effective, is estimated at $2,125.8 million, including all of the rates to be phased over a period of years.

In the first year $670 million of the $2,125.8 million would be provided from appropriations by Congress under the Postal Reorganization Act.

About 80 per cent of the nation's mail volume of nearly 90 billion pieces in fiscal year 1972 will be business-type mail, and the bulk of the increase would be borne by these users.

Sen. Hart to receive conservation award

Sen. Philip A. Hart of Michigan has been named winner of a 1970 Distinguished Service Award for Conservation Legislation by the 2½ million member National Wildlife Federation. Sen. Hart has been a strong advocate of conservation legislation since he first was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1958. In honoring him with its Conservation Legislation Award, the federation cited Hart's skillful handling of legislation preserving endangered wildlife species.

Secretary of State Richard H. Austin is seeking clarification on whether the daylight saving time issue will be voted upon at the so-called "odd-year" election this November. In a letter to Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley, Austin asked for clarification on whether this fall's election is a general election and whether the time issue will be presented to the voters.

Sen. Hart also was praised for the series of hearings he held during 1970 on the effects of chemicals, particularly pesticides and herbicides on the environment. The hearings focused public and governmental attention on a problem of chemical pollution.

Will DST be on ballot this fall?

If Kelley rules that it is not a general election, DST will be voted upon in November of 1972.

LABRATORY MATH — Mrs. Alice Humphrey, fourth grade teacher at the Elwell Elementary School, listens as Dr. Don Buckeye explains the use of color rods she is making at the weekly learning center for teachers held at North Junior High School. Dr. Buckeye heads the group that is constructing mathematical apparatus to be used in the classroom.

To teach mathematics

Teachers learning new methods

Laboratory mathematics ala Dr. John Ginther and Dr. Don Buckeye is the order of the day. Every Tuesday at 4 p.m., Room 109 and the shop of the North Junior High School becomes a learning center for teachers. They drive in from all parts of the school district and when finally assembled, they are 42 strong.

The main group forms into two sub-groups. One group goes with Dr. Buckeye and is put to work constructing mathematical apparatus to be used in the classroom. The other section remains in the classroom learning theory, constructing math laboratory games, assignment cards for children and learning how to teach children how to make assignment cards. The main idea behind the program is that children are taught theory from the text and a laboratory or working experience will make the theory relevant. "It's great to actually watch the children put theory into practice," said Elwell School Principal William Chizmar.

possibly one day per week or used when children have finished their regular assignments," he said.

Committee named

A five-member special committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners will represent the board in planning for the domed sports stadium proposed for Detroit's riverfront. The committee was appointed by Board Chairman Robert E. FitzPatrick.

FitzPatrick said the committee will serve as the board's liaison with the Wayne County Stadium Authority which was incorporated to plan, build and operate the proposed domed stadium. O'Rourke and FitzPatrick were members of the original Downtown Stadium Working Group.

Ford announces academy picks

Two young men from the Belleville area were among the students who received nominations to the service academies. This year. Nominated to the Air Force and Naval Academies was Curtis Edward Cilia, a senior at Belleville High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cilia, 47940 Hull Rd. Glenn Frank Reinhackel a senior at Belleville High School is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reinhackel, 7851 Haggerty Rd. He received nominations to the U.S. Naval Academy and the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy.

Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District) has announced the names of 27 young men in the 15th District who have received his congressional nominations for the final competitive examinations for admission to the United States Service Academies.

Chosen from a field of the most outstanding young men in the area, the nominees were selected by Congressman Ford for their excellence in the fields of scholarship, physical fitness, leadership, extra-curricular activities, and character. The academy hopefuls will now compete for two vacancies in the U.S. Military Academy, two in the Air Force Academy, and two in the Naval Academy to be filled from Congressman Ford's district this year. Each academy will administer the final competitive examinations and the final selections for appointment will be made by the academy admissions offices. "I am proud to have been given the opportunity to nominate these outstanding young men," Congressman Ford said. "The fact that these 27 applicants received over forty nominations between them is a testimony to their abilities. "Because all of the young men who receive my congressional nominations meet the academy standards," Congressman Ford continued, "I feel that it is important that each have a fair and equal opportunity to achieve his goal. Competitive nominations assure this." The final decision on the appointments will be made and announced by the Academies in April.

Winner named in spelling bee

Romulus '66 class reunion set

Plans are under way for the five-year reunion for the class of 1966 of Romulus Senior High School.

Since the original letter was sent to members of the class, plans have been changed. The new date is April 24 and the reunion will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Roma Hall, Livonia.

The cost of the tickets is $15 per couple and $7.50 for singles. Letters have been sent to persons involved, but anyone who hasn't been contacted or who is interested in attending should contact Mrs. Marge Block Bergman at 941-3090. There will be a buffet dinner. There will be five eclipses in 1971, three of the sun and two of the moon.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

As people grow older and group themselves with still older people, the subject of children's behavior often captures the conversation. This is an ageless topic which seems to attach itself to ageing. The vices or virtues of present day children are compared with their own childhood days. Quite often, the hazy recollections of yesteryear are clouded by the passing of time. To those who complain or condemn, the following quote could be interesting—

"Our youth now love luxury. They have bad manners, contempt for authority. They show disrespect for elders and love chatter in place of exercise. Children are now tyrants, not the servants of their households. They no longer rise when elders enter the room. They contradict their parents, chatter before company, gobble up their food and tyrannize their teachers."

Who said this—and when? Was it recently? Care to guess? ... The quote is from Socrates in the 5th Century, B.C! We guess it proves kids will be kids; always have been and always will be.
